THE PAN AFRICANIST CONGRESS OF AZANIA INPUT REGARDING: THE TECHNICAL COMMITTEE DEALING WITH THE INDEPENDENT ELECTIONS COMMISSION

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE INDEPENDENT ELECTIONS COMMISSION (I.E.C.) AND THE TRANSITIONAL AUTHORITY (T.A.):

The PAC proposes an independent T.A. with fully-fledged executive and legislative powers in its areas of jurisdiction (including elections) as it fully appears from the PAC's input on the Technical Committee dealing with the so-called T.E.C. (contained in another paper). According to the PAC proposals, the T.A. is truly independent and there is therefore no need for the I.E.C. to be independent of the T.A. Unlike the T.E.C. which has a sub-council on Elections and which sub-council may not interfere with the work of the I.E.C., the T.A. has no such sub-councils and the I.E.C. reports directly to the T.A.
