

P.A.C. PROPOSAL

18 JUNE 1993.

Noting that there are a number of organisations participating in the negotiations that are not state aided.

Further noting that the process is a complicated one which requires adequate back-up constitutional advisors.

Resolves that the regime makes an allocation of a substantial financial contribution to the independent administrators of this process.

Further resolves that the independent administration makes adequate financial assistance to organisations which are unaided by tax payers monies, to adequately and meaningfully play its part in these important deliberations.
