- (b) any referendum conducted under the supervision of the Commission in terms of subsection (2).

(2) Upon the advice of the Transitional Council the State President shall by proclamation in the Gazette declare -

- (a) the holding of a referendum; and
- (b) that the provisions of this Act shall apply in respect of the holding of that referendum.

(3) The State President shall in consultation with the Transitional Council by proclamation in the Gazette make regulations for the holding of such a referendum, in which case the provisions of this Act shall, subject to such regulations, apply mutatis mutandis in respect of the holding of such referendum, whether nationally or within any particular geographical region, or in respect of any specified issue, as the case may be.

(4) In the event of any of the Republics of Transkei, Bophuthatswana, Venda or Ciskei deciding formally to incorporate the provisions of this Act and the Electoral Act into its law, such agreements as may be required to secure the co-ordinated implementation of the relevant legislation may be concluded and any such agreements shall have the force of law.

Act binding on State and State President

3. (1) This Act shall bind the State.

(2) This Act shall bind the State President in so far as he or she shall be obliged to act in accordance with the advice of the Transitional ^{Executive} Council wherever so provided for in this Act.

CHAPTER II

Independent Electoral Commission

Establishment and objects of Commission

4. (1) There is hereby established a commission to be known as the Independent Electoral Commission.

(2) The objects of the Commission shall be -

- (a) to administer, organize, supervise and conduct, whether directly or indirectly, free and fair elections for the National Assembly and all ^{other} legislatures in terms of the Constitution;
- (b) to promote conditions conducive to free and fair elections;
- (c) to determine and certify the results of elections and to certify to what extent such elections have been free and fair;
- (d) to conduct voter education; and
- (e) to make and enforce regulations for the achievement of such objects.

Constitution of Commission

5. (1) The Commission shall, subject to subsection (2), consist of no fewer than seven and not more than 11 members who shall be appointed by the State President upon the advice of the Transitional Council, and who shall be impartial, respected and suitably qualified men and women, who do not have a high party political profile, are themselves voters, and represent a broad cross-section of the population.

(2) (a) The State President shall, upon the advice of the Transitional Council, appoint not more than five persons (not being citizens of the Republic) from the international community as members of the Commission in a non-representative capacity.

(b) Such international members shall have the same rights and powers as other members, excluding the power to vote, and shall not constitute part of any quorum in terms of this Act.

(3) (a) The State President shall, upon the advice of the Transitional Council, designate two members as Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson of the Commission, respectively: Provided that if the Transitional Council so decides, it may advise the State President to designate two members as Co-Chairpersons in lieu of a Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson, and designate which one of them shall preside at the first meeting of the Commission.

(b) In the absence of both such Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson, or both such Co-Chairpersons, as the case may be, the remaining members shall by simple majority nominate another member as acting Chairperson of the Commission.

(c) The international members shall not be eligible to serve as Chairperson, Co-Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson or acting Chairperson.

(4) The State President shall from time to time, upon the advice of the Transitional Council and subject to subsection (1), appoint additional members to the Commission subject to the maximum number contemplated in that subsection.

Conduct required of members

6. (1) Every member and international member of the Commission shall -

- (a) be appointed in his or her individual capacity, and shall, notwithstanding any personal opinion, preference or party affiliation, serve impartially and independently and perform his or her functions in good faith and without fear, favour, bias or prejudice;
- (b) serve in a full-time capacity to the exclusion of any other duty or obligation arising out of any other employment, occupation or the holding of any other office.

(2) No member or international member of the Commission shall -

- (a) during his or her term of office be eligible for appointment or nomination to any political or public office, whether involving remuneration or not, and such ineligibility shall, in respect of such public office, continue for a period of 18 months reckoned from the date upon which such term of office as a member shall have

- terminated, save in respect of the resumption of the previously held public office at the same level;
- (b) whether directly or indirectly, in any manner give support to, or oppose, any of the parties or candidates participating in the elections, or any of the issues in contention between such parties or candidates;
 - (c) by his or her membership, association, statement, conduct or in any other manner, place in jeopardy his or her perceived independence, or in any other manner harm the credibility, impartiality, independence or integrity of the Commission;
 - (d) make private use of or profit from any confidential information gained as a result of his or her appointment and functions as such member;
 - (e) divulge any such information to any third party save in the course and scope of his or her official functions and with the prior approval of the Commission;
 - (f) accept any remuneration, emolument or benefit, of whatsoever nature, arising from any other employment, occupation or the holding of any other office, unless specifically authorized thereto by the State President, acting upon the advice of the Transitional Council;
 - (g) during his or her term of office be eligible to serve as a member of the Transitional Council, Parliament or any other legislature, and such ineligibility shall continue for a period of 18 months reckoned from the date upon which such term of office shall have terminated; and
 - (h) after having served as such member, be eligible to serve as a member of the Parliament or other legislature for which that Commission was responsible to conduct elections, during the term of such Parliament or legislature.

Disclosure of conflicting interests

7. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a member or international member shall not at any meeting of the Commission -

- (a) be present;
- (b) exercise a vote;
- (c) in any other manner participate in the proceedings thereof,

during the discussion of any matter before such meeting in respect of which he or she has any financial or other interest which might preclude him or her from performing his or her functions in a fair, unbiased and proper manner.

(2) If at any stage during the course of any proceedings before the Commission it appears that any member or international member has or may have an interest which may cause such a conflict of interests to arise on his or her part -

- (a) such member shall forthwith and fully disclose the nature of his or her interest and leave the meeting so as to enable the remaining members to discuss the matter and determine whether such member is precluded from participating in such meeting by reason of a conflict of interests; and
- (b) such disclosure and the decision taken by the remaining members regarding such determination, shall be recorded in the minutes of the relevant meeting.

(3) If any member or international member fails to disclose any interest as required by subsection (2) or, subject to that subsection, is present at a meeting of the Commission or in any manner whatsoever participates in the proceedings of the Commission in relation to such matter, such proceedings may be reviewed, varied or set aside by the Commission.

Independence of Commission

8. (1) The Commission shall function without political or other bias or interference and shall, save as may in this Act be expressly otherwise provided, be independent and separate from the Transitional Council, any party, any government and its administration or any other functionary or body, whether directly or indirectly representing the interests of any such entity.

(2) Any power of any of the entities referred to in subsection (1), in so far as it relates to the administration, organization, conduct and supervision of any election, shall be subject to the powers of the Commission, to which such entities shall be accountable for such of their acts and decisions as may influence or affect any election.

Dissolution of Commission

9. The Commission shall be dissolved upon the completion of its mandate on a date fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette.

Conditions of service, remuneration and allowances of members of Commission and International Advisory Committee

10. The conditions of service, remuneration, allowances and other benefits of members of the Commission and the International Advisory Committee shall be determined by the Transitional Council after consultation with the State President.

Vacation of office, removal from office and filling of vacancies in Commission

11. (1) A member of the Commission may be removed from office by order of the Special Electoral Court on an application lodged by or on behalf of -

- (a) the State President;
- (b) the Transitional Council;
- (c) Parliament; or
- (d) any registered party eligible to participate in the election, or at least 1 000 voters: Provided that no such application by such party or such voters shall be heard save with the prior leave of the Chairperson of the Special Electoral Court, who shall first satisfy himself or herself as to the existence of probable cause, and who may impose such conditions upon the grant of leave, including the imposition of time limits for the institution of any such proceedings, as he or she may consider appropriate, if the Special Electoral Court is satisfied as to the existence of good and sufficient reason therefor as contemplated in subsection (2).

(2) In considering any such application the Special Electoral Court shall determine that good and sufficient reason exists for the removal from office of a member of the Commission, in case of -

- (a) serious misconduct;
- (b) unfitness or incapacity, including continued ill health;
- (c) a material contravention or failure to comply with the provisions of section 6(1)(a) or (b) or (2)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) or 7(1) or (2); or
- (d) any other reason which the Special Electoral Court may consider material and inconsistent with such member's continuance in office.

(3) If a member of the Commission dies, tenders his or her resignation in writing to the State President or is removed from office in terms of this section, the State President shall upon the advice of the Transitional Council, either -

- (a) allow such appointment to lapse, provided there remains at least the minimum number of members provided for in section 5(1); or
- (b) appoint some other suitably qualified person as a member for the unexpired portion of the term of the Commission.

Meetings of Commission

12. (1) The Commission may meet at any place in the Republic determined by the Chairperson or a Co-Chairperson, as the case may be, for the purpose of performing its functions.

(2) Meetings may be convened at any time at the instance of the Chairperson or a Co-Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson, as the case may be, or at the instance of any two other members, and shall be convened at such intervals as circumstances may require.

(3) A quorum for a meeting of the Commission shall be 75% of the members.

(4) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), and section 5(3)(b), the decision of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting of the Commission shall be the decision of the Commission.

(b) The Commission shall in terms of section 18(b) certify that an election was substantially free and fair, only if ^{as proposed by} at least 75% of the members present at the meeting of the Commission concur.

(5) The Commission may determine its own procedures to be followed at its meetings.

Powers, duties and functions of Commission

~~~~ 13. (1) The Commission may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties and functions conferred upon or assigned to it by this Act or any other law.

(2) The Commission shall -

- (a) assume responsibility for the administration, organization and conduct, whether directly or indirectly, and the supervision of the administration, organization and conduct of any election;
- (b) take such measures as it may consider necessary for the prevention of intimidation of voters, candidates and parties;
- (c) be responsible for the education of voters concerning -
 - (i) democratic principles and values;
 - (ii) the electoral process and mechanisms;
 - (iii) the right to free political canvassing and campaigning;
 - (iv) secrecy of voting; and
 - (v) any other relevant matter,by means of -
 - (aa) literature and the use of other media, including distribution and publication of suitable literature, advertisements and dissemination through radio, television and the public print media, having due regard to the variety of languages spoken and varying levels of education throughout the Republic; and
 - (bb) workshops, seminars and meetings, as it may consider appropriate; and
- (d) submit monthly reports in writing concerning its functions, which reports shall be delivered at the same time to the Transitional Council and the State President, and such reports shall be public documents.

- (3) The Commission shall have power -
- (a) to hear and determine appeals against decisions or actions of the Chief Directors: Administration and Monitoring in respect of prescribed matters, which decisions or actions may be confirmed, varied or set aside;
 - (b) to give instructions to the Chief Directors: Administration and Monitoring in respect of matters concerning their functions, which power may be exercised either upon request from the said Chief Directors or at its own initiative; and
 - (c) to establish such committees as it may consider necessary for the effective exercise and performance of its powers, duties and functions, and determine the composition, quorum for a meeting and a decision, procedure and functions thereof.

International Advisory Committee

14. (1) The State President shall, upon the advice of the Transitional Council, establish a committee to be known as the International Advisory Committee to advise the Commission on any matter regarding the performance of its functions as may be requested by it.

(2) The International Advisory Committee may consist of persons (not being citizens of the Republic) from the international community appointed in a non-representative capacity by the State President upon the advice of the Transitional Council.

(3) The International Advisory Committee may determine its own procedures to be followed at its meetings.

Administration and staff of Commission

15. The Commission shall, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by this Act or any other law, for the purpose of achieving its objects, have the power to -

- (a) appoint staff to assist it or a Chief Director of a directorate or the Secretary in the performance of its or his or her functions, and after consultation with the Minister of State Expenditure, determine their conditions of service, remuneration, allowances and other benefits, including those of -
 - (i) members of committees who are not members of the Commission;
 - (ii) the Chief Directors: Administration and Monitoring and the Secretary; and
 - (iii) other officials;
- (b) request the secondment to it of skilled personnel from any public service, subject to any law applicable to such personnel in that regard, to assist the Commission, the Chief Directors of the directorates or the Secretary in the performance of its, his or her functions;
- (c) open and maintain its own financial accounts; and
- (d) take such steps, including legal steps as are necessary to give effect to this Act or any decision taken under this Act.

Expenditure of Commission and budget

16. (1) The expenditure in connection with the exercise of the commission's powers and the performance of its duties and functions shall be paid out of money appropriated by Parliament for such purpose.

(2) The Commission shall budget for and be allocated the necessary resources or additional resources to enable it to exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions effectively.

Accountability and finance

17. (1) The Commission shall at its first meeting or as soon thereafter as possible appoint a person to the office of Chief Executive Officer who -

- (a) shall be responsible for the management of and administrative control over the staff appointed or seconded in terms of section 15(a) or (b), respectively, in respect of the Commission;
- (b) shall, subject to the Exchequer Act, 1975 (Act No. 66 of 1975) -
 - (i) be charged with the responsibility of accounting for State money received or paid out for or on account of the Commission, the directorates and the Secretariat; and
 - (ii) cause the necessary accounting and other related records to be kept;

(c) may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties and functions which the Commission may from time to time confer upon or assign to him or her in order to achieve the objects of this Act and shall, for the purposes thereof be accountable to the Commission.

(2) The records referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall be audited by the Auditor-General.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer, and the persons referred to in section 15(a) or (b) shall exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions in an impartial manner and shall, in so doing, be subject to such provisions of the laws governing the public service of the Republic as may be indicated by the Commission and to the extent so indicated by the Commission as well as the Exchequer Act, 1975, and the Auditor-General Act, 1989 (Act No. 52 of 1989).

Determination and certification of election results, or declaration

18. Upon completion of the ballot, the Commission shall as expeditiously as possible, but not sooner than two days and not later than 10 days after the close of the poll -

- (a) determine and certify the results of the election; and
- (b) either certify in respect of the National Assembly and each other legislature that the election was substantially free and fair; or

(c) declare that it was unable to certify it as such.

CHAPTER III

- (k) the procedures for investigating alleged infringements of the Electoral Code of Conduct, electoral offences or matters justiciable in terms of this Act in order to bring it to an expeditious conclusion;

- (l) the practice and procedure to be followed by the Chief Directors: Administration and Monitoring in hearing appeals against decisions or actions of functionaries of the directorates, having due regard to the principles of natural justice;
- (m) the practice and procedure to be followed by the Secretary in the performance of his or her functions;
- (n) fees and costs and the recovery thereof in respect of legal proceedings in terms of this Act;
- (o) representation or absence thereof in respect of legal proceedings in terms of this Act;
- (p) the practice and procedure to be followed by the Electoral and Appeal Tribunals in the conduct of their proceedings in order to bring such proceedings to an expeditious conclusion, having due regard to fairness and justice;
- (q) the regulation of the conduct of all persons, parties and candidates in so far as such conduct may promote or inhibit the conduct of free and fair elections;
- (r) any matter required or permitted to be prescribed in terms of this Act; and
- (s) generally, all matters which in its opinion are necessary or expedient to be prescribed to achieve the objects of this Act.

(2) A regulation under subsection (1) may prescribe penalties for any contravention of the provisions thereof or any failure to comply therewith of a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years.

(3) Regulations under subsection (1) affecting State expenditure shall be made only after consultation with the Minister of State Expenditure.

Short title and commencement

42. This Act shall be called the Independent Electoral Commission Act, 1993, and shall come into operation on a date fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORAL COMMISSION
BILL, 1993

The Negotiating Council sitting at the World Trade Centre near Kempton Park as part of the Multi-Party Negotiating Process has agreed to the contents of the above-mentioned Bill for the establishment of an Independent Electoral Commission to conduct, administer, organize and supervise the first elections for a democratically elected National Assembly and all other legislatures contemplated in the so called Interim Constitution Bill (which is being negotiated).

This Bill corresponds with a new Electoral Bill which is being negotiated and the said Interim Constitution Bill.
