

RECOMMENDATION TO NEGOTIATING COUNCIL
FROM PLANNING COMMITTEE ON TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

on page 40 to insert new subsection

24(7)

The Subcouncil on the Status of Women from time to time shall nominate three persons, from amongst its members who shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Council and to address it on any matters relevant to the Status of Women."

INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT IN THE TEC

(1) SUBCOUNCIL FOR LAW AND ORDER, STABILITY AND SECURITY

- (1) (e) to establish a committee comprised of local experts or of local and foreign experts, to evaluate or monitor any police action, conduct or reform which relates to the objects of the Council;

(2) SUBCOUNCIL FOR DEFENCE

- (12) The Subcouncil, in consultation with the National Peacekeeping Force Command Council, having due regard also to the interests of women, shall:

- (a) establish and see to the training of a unit of National Peacekeeping Force instructors who may be drawn from the participating military forces and policing agencies but shall also include foreign experts;

(3) SUBCOUNCIL FOR FINANCE

- (5) The Subcouncil shall be provided, on a continuous basis with full particulars, including the intended purposes, concerning any new international financial agreement which is being negotiated between a Government and any foreign government or international agency, and no such agreement shall be concluded without the prior approval of the Subcouncil.

(4) SUBCOUNCIL FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Powers and duties in regard to foreign affairs

- 18. The Council shall, for the purpose of achieving its objects, through its Subcouncil on Foreign Affairs, in regard to foreign policy, liaise, monitor, make recommendations and, where it considers it necessary, assist with a view to -

- (a) achieving progressively the broadest possible consensus on matters affecting South Africa's international interests, particularly its long-term interests;

- (b) securing appropriate agreements with the international community regarding the contribution that community could make to the peaceful transition to democracy;
- (c) in consultation with the Subcouncil on Finance, securing such international assistance as the Subcouncil considers necessary in order to address the socio-economic needs of the people as a whole and not to serve the interests of one or other political party;
- (d) ensuring that any foreign policy initiative benefits the country as a whole and not one or other political party; and
- (e) promoting such international relations, including trade, finance, culture and sport relations, as in the opinion of the Subcouncil will benefit the country as a whole.

CONFIDENTIAL

THIS REPORT IS EMBARGOED UNTIL DELIVERY/TABLING
IN THE NEGOTIATING COUNCIL

SEVENTH REPORT OF THE TECHNICAL COMMITTEE ON THE TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

1 JULY 1993

FOR TEC COMMITTEE ONLY

SUMMARY OF THE FIRST TO SIXTH REPORTS DELIVERED/TABLED
IN THE NEGOTIATING COUNCIL

1. INTRODUCTION TO MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE

- 1.1 Zenobia du Toit, attorney, Cape Town;
- 1.2 Eric Mapheto, accountant, Lebowa;
- 1.3 Dawid van Wyk, professor of Law, Unisa;
- 1.4 Jan Heunis, advocate, Cape Bar;
- 1.5 Fink Haysom, attorney and professor of Law, Wits; and
- 1.6 Kolekile Renene, advocate, Transkei Bar.

2. Since its last appearance before the Council, the Technical Committee has completed five further reports. All these reports have been circulated to the members of the Negotiating Council.

3. This morning the Technical Committee was supplied with a document:

"RESOLUTION ON STEPS TO BE TAKEN FOR THE PURPOSES OF ESTABLISHING A NEW CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER";

3.1 Paragraph 1.4 of this document reads as follows:

"The MPNP shall agree on legislation to make provision for the following structures for the purpose of levelling the playing field and promoting conditions conducive to the holding of free and fair elections:"

3.1.1 A Transitional Executive Council.

3.2 In view of the abovementioned paragraph, the question as to whether the Negotiating Council must debate the existence or non-existence of a Transitional Executive Council has been overtaken by events.

4. SECOND REPORT OF THE TECHNICAL COMMITTEE ON THE TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL DATED 21 MAY 1993

4.1 Paragraphs 1 and 2 are self-explanatory.

4.2 Paragraph 3 is a correction of an error contained on page 7 of the First Report:

"The previous report suggested that parties could be represented by two members in any sub-council."

The correction reads as follows:

"Parties should not be represented by more than ONE member in any sub-council."

4.3 Note further the supplement under paragraph 4.

4.4 Note the Addenda to the report.

5. THIRD REPORT OF THE TECHNICAL COMMITTEE ON THE TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL DATED 28 MAY 1993

5.1 This report deals with the powers and functions of the following sub-councils:

5.1.1 Foreign Affairs; and

5.1.2 Finance.

5.2 The committee will highlight the important principles of respective sub-councils.

6. FOURTH REPORT OF THE TECHNICAL COMMITTEE ON THE TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL DATED 28 MAY 1993

6.1 This report in particular falls within the ambit of the provisions of paragraph 1.4 of the document referred to above, "RESOLUTION ON STEPS....." dated 30 June 1993.

6.2 Council members are however requested to note paragraph 3 of the report and Addendum A.

7. FIFTH REPORT OF THE TECHNICAL COMMITTEE ON THE TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL DATED 9 JUNE 1993

7.1 This report deals with the powers and functions in relation to regional and local government.

7.2 This is a short report and the Technical Committee will deal with it.

8. SIXTH REPORT OF THE TECHNICAL COMMITTEE ON THE TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL DATED 11 JUNE 1993

8.1 This report deals with the powers and functions in relation to law and order, stability and security.

8.2 This report will be dealt with in detail.
