

CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY

MEMORANDUM

To: Members of the Management Committee

From: Hassen Ebrahim

Date: 5 December 1995

RE: MATTERS ARISING

1. Coat of Arms

1.1 It was agreed at the Management Committee Meeting of 7 September 1995 that a small sub-committee be established to look into this matter. Despite requests made to all parties, we have not received all the nominations.

In the meantime, we have made enquiries as to the relevant stakeholders such as the SANDF, Public Works, Government Printers and State Heraldry who could possibly assist in providing the sub-committee with expert opinion.

2. National Territory

2.1 The Constitutional Committee Sub-Committee decided on 28 September 1995 that a team of experts would consider the issue of an accurate definition of the National Territory. This matter is being pursued and a report will be tabled in due course.

3. Language of the Constitution

3.1 It was agreed at the Constitutional Committee meeting of 9 November 1995 that the Directorate be instructed to identify a team of language experts who could possibly advise with regard to the elegance, majesty and South African flavour in the language of the new constitution. This matter is still being pursued and a report will be tabled in due course.
