CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY

WORKSHOP ON PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

28 - 30 NOVEMBER 1994

REPORT

1. INTRODUCTION

A workshop to which Constitutional Assembly was invited, was held in Pretoria on the 28-30th November 1994. The following members attended:

Prof DC du Toit
Sen P H Groenewald
Mr MJ Mahlangu
Mr VB Ndlovu
Mr JA Rabie

Mbasa left Cape Town on Sunday 27 November 1994 to prepare for the workshop and to provide transport for participants. Among others, he confirmed reservations for members and staff at the Holiday Inn Garden Court and inspected the workshop venue.

2. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LEVELS OF GOVERNMENT

It was recommended that the CPG should decide which powers are exclusive or concurrent and which must be delegated to Provincial Governments. The answer to this question must not be influenced by party political interests.

2.1 The Commission on Provincial Government

The Commission on Provincial Government has been entrusted amongst others with the following functions:

To convert intergovernmental fragmentation

- Co-ordinate various structures of Government
- Monitors and evaluates developmental programmes like the Reconstruction and Development Programme.
- To play a mediating role between Provincial and Local Governments.

The Commission will receive submissions, process them and make recommendations to the Constitutional Assembly, as provided for in Section 161(2) of the Interim Constitution.

2.2 Senate and Provincial Legislatures

The role and powers of the Senate was discussed. It was recommended that a workshop be organised to address the question of representativity of the Senate in the Provincial and National Government. The relationship between Provincial and National Legislatures will also be addressed at the same workshop.

2.3 Powers and Functions of Provincial Governments

The definition of the following principles is essential for the development of Provinces: deconcentration, decentralisation, subsidiary and devolution

2.4 Local Governments

The powers of Provincial Governments were discussed in relation to Local Government structures.

2.5 Public Service Commission

The relationship between the Public Service Commission, the Provincial and the National Governments will need to be clearly defined in the new Constitution.

2.6 Traditional Leaders and Volkstaat Council

Traditional Leaders will have to be consulted on their potential decision making role.

Although some participants expressed reservations about the principle of self determination, the workshop noted the concerns of the Volkstaat Council.

3. CONCLUSION

Generally the workshop was informative and well organised. Attendance from Theme Committees was poor, but the level of participation was reasonably high.

CA BRIEFING DOCUMENT

BRIEFING DOCUMENT FOR JOINT MEETING OF CHAIRPERSONS OF THEME COMMITTEES

23 JANUARY 1995

1. Introduction

This document is intended to serve as a basis of discussion and a guideline for Chairpersons and Core Groups. It is concerned with the Work Programme of the Constitutional Assembly as agreed to by the Constitutional Committee of 2 December 1994.

The main purpose of the document is to look at the role of Core Groups and Chairpersons in ensuring that the work of the Constitutional Assembly progresses within the framework agreed to, and that the final deadline of May 1996 is adhered to.

2. Work Programme

The Constitutional Committee endorsed the enclosed Work Programme as a broad framework for 1995. The meeting emphasised the need for flexibility and stressed that the programme was a framework and should not be seen as a rigid time-table. It was agreed that ongoing evaluation and adjustment would take place within this framework as work proceeded.

The Work Programme is the culmination of the collective efforts of members of the CA and its structure. In particular, it is a product of several months of rigorous debate by Theme Committees who have produced work plans in accordance with the terms of reference as set out in the Resolution of 5 September 1994.

These work plans have been compiled into a comprehensive work programme for the CA as a whole, taking into account both the work plans of Theme Committees themselves, and a technical survey of the constitutional issues noted by Theme Committees. The programme also took into account the need for a developed programme of public participation including media and community liaison.

The overriding consideration in compiling the Work Programme of course has been time constraints. Sec 73(1) of the Constitution requires the Constitutional Assembly to complete the process of drafting the new constitutional text by no later than May 1996. The Constitutional Committee meeting of 31 October 1994 resolved to produce a draft text of the new Constitution by 14 July 1995. In this regard the Theme Committees are required to complete their reports and the major part of their work by 30 June 1995.

In an attempt to ensure that the CA does abide by the final deadline of May 1996 for completion of its task, it has been opportune to devise a Work Programme which has divided the work of each Theme Committee into ten major "blocks". Each "block" represents a cycle of meetings of the various structures of the CA, culminating each time in a meeting of the Assembly itself as the supreme decision-making body. During each of these "blocks" it has been suggested that Theme Committees deal with specified subjects or aspects of their particular constitutional theme.

The Constitutional Committee has also agreed to the enclosed Schedule of Meetings for the first half of 1995. Once again this schedule is regarded as a framework which will be adjusted when required.

This schedule has however been carefully planned to allow Theme Committees to receive submissions, process these and prepare reports timeously for the Constitutional Committee, which in turn reports to the Constitutional Assembly. It is important that this schedule is adhered to as closely as possible to avoid unnecessary delays .

It is important, as outlined above, that the schedule is looked at as a whole. Any adjustment will have to take into account the necessary cycle of meetings to ensure that the CA process flows smoothly and that all structures are afforded the necessary time to play their part.

It should be noted that the Constitutional Committee accepted the four sub-committees of Theme Committee 6 and further agreed that the question of establishing other sub-committees would be considered later. It was also agreed to that all joint meetings of Theme Committees would be centrally co-ordinated by the Secretariat.

3. Management

This Work Programme and Schedule of Meetings will require careful management if it is to achieve its objective of ensuring a new constitution by May 1996.

The role of the Management Committee is spelled out in detail in the CA Resolution of 5 September 1994. The Management Committee is charged in brief with co-ordinating the work of all Theme Committees, and preparing the agenda and reports to be presented to the Constitutional Committee.

The major task of ensuring that deadlines are adhered to and that the work programme proceeds according to plan, however will fall to Theme Committees themselves.

To this end, each Theme Committee, has a Core Group and Chairpersons responsible for managing and co-ordinating the work programme of the Theme Committee.

4. Role of Core Groups

The Core Group consists of 7 - 8 members. Its composition is as follows 2 ANC; 1 NP; 1 PAC; 1 DP; 1 FF; 1 IFP.

The Core Group is the managing Committee of the Theme Committee and deals with process matters on behalf of the Theme Committee. Its task is to ensure that the work of the Theme Committee proceeds smoothly.

The Core Group manages the Theme Committee in the following way :

- a) prepares agenda for Theme Committee meetings;
- b) prepares reports for Theme Committee consideration;
- c) co-ordinates the activities of the Theme Committee;
- d) attends other meetings on behalf of the Theme Committee; and
- e) ensures that Theme Committee tasks and decisions are dealt with accordingly.

The Core Group, as outlined above, has a major role to play in planning the work of its particular Theme Committee and ensuring that all necessary documentation and reports are compiled and received according to deadline.

5. Role of Chairpersons of Theme Committees

In addition to the Core Group, the Chairpersons of Theme Committees have a pivotal role to play in managing the work of Theme Committees.

Their principal role is to conduct the proceedings of both the Core Group and Theme Committee meetings, and thus also direct the proceedings of both these bodies. The importance of this role cannot be over-emphasised. The Chairpersons will be relied upon to keep meetings, and the Theme Committee, on target and ensure that they achieve their objectives.

The extremely tight time frames of the CA process as a whole, will make the work of Chairpersons more demanding than usual. It is essential that Chairpersons keep these time frames in mind at all times and that they remind Theme Committee members that work must proceed according to schedule.

Both Chairpersons and Core Groups will also play a key role in monitoring and evaluating the work of the Theme Committee, and thus suggesting adjustments to the schedule when required.

Other duties of the Chairpersons will include :

- a) attending to the ratification and approval of all minutes and reports; (It was agreed at the Constitutional Committee meeting of 2 December 1994, that minutes of Theme Committee meetings would be available for the Chairperson to sign within 24 hours. They would be circulated to members at the start of the next meeting.)
- b) ensuring that Theme Committee members sign the attendance register;
- c) ensuring that Theme Committee members table written apologies; and
- d) consulting the Secretariat on procedural and administrative issues during Theme Committee meetings.

Most members of the CA have very demanding individual schedules. Because of the time frames of the CA process, it is necessary for this reason alone, that the process receives the highest priority and this will demand the commitment of all members of the CA. Chairpersons and members of the Core Group will need to play an exemplary role to ensure the fullest participation of all members of Theme Committees in the work of the CA.

6. Role of Secretariat

Each Theme Committee has attached to it, a Managing and Minute Secretary to provide the necessary administrative support and back-up it requires to work efficiently and effectively.

These staff are part of a larger collective, the Secretariat, which is one of the key departments of the CA Administration as a whole. The Secretariat is also the key liaison point between the Theme Committees and other departments in the Administration.

The Management Committee has agreed that all requests for research and any other assistance from the Administration should therefore be channelled through the Secretariat. It should be noted that requests from Theme Committees, or Technical Committees on behalf of Theme Committees, for research and/or other opinion or assistance should all be directed to the Administration where the final decision will be taken, in consultation with the Management Committee, whether an outside agency or person(s) be commissioned or contracted for the job.

The Secretariat is purely an administrative body and will not engage in the political process of the Constitutional Assembly.

It is essential that Chairpersons maintain close links with the Secretariat and with their Managing Secretary in particular. This will ensure that the Secretariat is able to keep abreast of developments and provide the Theme Committee with all relevant assistance.

It is important to note however, that members of the Secretariat, as with all staff of the CA Administration, account to the Executive Director and not directly to members of the CA itself.

7. Theme Committee Reports

The entire Work Programme depends to a great extent on the timely production and circulation of reports by Theme Committees.

The Constitutional Committee of 2 December 1994 agreed to the following :

- i) the reports would be presented to the Constitutional Committee for debate at the Constitutional Assembly as and when a particular constitutional issue identified within the work plan schedule has been processed by a Theme Committee;
- ii) these reports would include details of contentious and non-contentious issues and suggested approaches;
- iii) Theme Committee reports would be drafted by Theme Committee members with the administrative assistance of the Secretariat;
- iv) should political parties be unhappy with the format of reports, this should be discussed in their Theme Committees. The issue would only be brought to the Constitutional Committee if the Theme Committee could not resolve it.

8. Submissions and the role of Political Parties

Finally, the entire Work Programme and Schedule of Meetings as agreed to by the Constitutional Committee, is based on the assumption that submissions will be received timeously to allow these to be processed and passed on to Theme Committees for their consideration.

Without the relevant submissions, there will be little substance for Theme Committees to consider. In fact, the existence of Theme Committees is to process submissions and views and pass these on in the form of the agreed reports to the Constitutional Committee.

It stands to reason that if the relevant submissions are not received timeously, the entire programme could be jeopardised.

It has been convenient for the CA's own internal purposes to structure itself along Theme Committee lines. It has been further necessary for each Theme Committee to devise its own detailed work plan. However, it would be unrealistic to expect civil society and the broader public to participate according to the terms of reference and work plan of each Theme Committee.

Public participation and submissions can be expected to be much more general. To expect anything else would be imposing academic constraints which would in fact serve to inhibit rather than encourage public participation. It will of course be possible to solicit public views and submissions on particular controversial subjects. In general however, even the more organised sectors of society will undoubtedly make a single general contribution to the CA. These submissions will also not necessarily be staggered along the lines of the adopted work programme.

Public interest will increase as the work of the CA proceeds. A major advertising campaign early in 1995 will seek to arouse public interest, and invite submissions. However, it can be expected that the majority of public submissions will arrive later on in the process once momentum begins to gather force.

The upshot of all the above, is that political parties represented in the CA, will need to ensure their submissions to the Theme Committees are made timeously and early on in the process in order to ensure that Theme Committees have some substance to deal with in the first few months of this year. This point needs to be borne in mind by all political parties in the CA in planning their party agendas for 1995.

The Constitutional Committee agreed to the following procedure regarding the receipt of submissions :

- i) all submissions should be tabled through the Administration;
- ii) as far as possible, all authors of submissions would be asked to provide executive summaries; and
- iii) ideally, all Theme Committee members would receive copies of submissions received for that particular Theme Committee, unless these are too bulky for reproduction. Summaries of lengthy submissions would be provided at the discretion of Core Groups.
