Beste Dr. Theuns Eloff

Ek stuur hiermee saam 'n selfverduidelikende uitnodiging wat ek aan 'n klompie sleutel figure gestuur het. Die besoekende Parlimentariërs gerig aan my via Anthony Cordle en Garth Collins.

Ek word meegedeel dat jy reeds voorheen die besoekende Parlimentariërs ontmoet het. Corrie en ek wil baie graag 'n geleentheid skep waartydens 'n klompie sleutel persone onder baie informele omstandighede gesellig kan verkeer om sodoende mekaar beter te kan leer ken op 'n persoonlike vlak.

Dit sal dus vir ons 'n groot voorreg en eer wees as jy en moontlik jou wederhelf om 19h00 vir 19h30 op 7 November 1993 by "Kamma Plase" Spionkoplaan 350, North Riding, Randburg, by ons kan aansluit vir aandete. Die aand is bedoel om uiters informeel te wees en ek hoop dat jy my voor 4 November 1993 sal kan laat weet of dit moontlik is om by ons te kan aansluit.

Ons sien baie daarna uit om julle die aand van 7 November 1993 by ons aan huis te hê.

Opregte groete

pf DEON EN CORRIE NEL

N.S. Garth Collins, met wie ek nou saam werk om die Britse Parlimentariërs met sleutel persone op 'n persoonlike vlak in kontak te stel, het voorgestel dat ek hierdie uitnodiging aan jou rig en ek glo dat hy met jou in aanraking sal wees om jou aan te moedig om die tyd te probeer vind om die besoekers op meer persoonlike vlak by ons aan huis te leer ken, asook wat ons hoop om uit die Parlimentariërs se besoek te bereik.

PER TELEFAX No:

Dear

As you may know, the Westminster Foundation for Democracy is a Foundation set up by Prime Minister John Major, together with all the heads of the major political parties in the U. K. as the patrons. The Foundation, has a keen interest in South Africa's progress towards democracy, and accordingly three British Members of Parliament are being sponsored by the Foundation to visit South Africa in November. They are Alistair Burt [Junior Minister for the Conservative Party], Peter Pike [Shadow Minister for the Labour Party] and Simon Hughes [Liberal Democrat].

I am delighted to have been asked to host a dinner at our house for these distinguished visitors with the purpose that they may meet our guests under more informal circumstances with my wife and my prayers being that those attending who already know the members of Parliament could further strengthen already existing bonds, and that those who meet these fine gentlemen for the first time will be able to lay the foundation for an enduring personal relationship - not only with the visiting Members of Parliament, but equally important with the other guests we hope to bring together and host around our table.

Corrie and I would therefore be delighted and honoured if you are able to join us on 7 November 1993 at 19h00 for 19h30 at "Kamma Plaas", 350 Spionkop Avenue, North Riding, Randburg, for an informal dinner.

Whilst the MP's are not accompanied by their spouses, you should feel free to be accompanied by yours to the dinner. We should be most grateful if you could R.S.V.P. to the above telephone or fax number by not later than 4 November 1993. We do trust that you will find the time in your very busy schedule to meet with these very good friends of South Africa as we know that our British Parliamentarian friends look forward very much to meeting you specifically.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

DEON AND CORRIE NEL

P.S. Richard Stevens, who is closely involved in arranging meetings for the visiting Parliamentarians with key people, has suggested that I extend this invitation to you and I know that he will be in touch with you to encourage you to find the time to meet the Parliamentarians over dinner at our house and to inform you personally of what we sincerely wish to achieve with the visit of the Parliamentarians.
