

MULTI-PARTY NEGOTIATION FORUM

RESOLUTION

2nd JULY 1993

It is expressly understood by all participants that each proposal, recommendation and documentation emanating from the Technical Committees, the Negotiating Council, or this Negotiating Forum shall be fully debated in order to reach agreement on them. When agreement is reached the Council or the Forum shall determine when and how each agreement shall be implemented and shall ensure that each of the participants have a clear understanding of each agreement. Agreements shall be finalised and implemented only as a package when there is clarity on when and how they will be implemented and when all agreements which would constitute the key elements of the transitional process have been presented for final approval and agreement on their implementation. The Negotiating Council is hereby instructed accordingly.
