Re: Electoral Bill
Date: 8 November 1993

The IFEE Lobbying Commission suggests that the following language which is also found in the Independent Electoral Commission Act, or something similar, be included in the Electoral Act.

"In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this Act and those of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail in so far as such provisions relate to the conduct and supervision of elections."

Although the Negotiating Council has established an ad hoc committee to look at legislation that should be repealed, it is clear that there will still exist both statutory and common law that may conflict with the electoral legislation, including the current constitution. Therefore, we suggest that the conflict provision be included in the Electoral Act so that it will be clear to the courts which law will apply.
