

DIKWANKWETLACONSTITUTIONAL PRINCIPLES

1. South Africa shall be a sovereign, democratic non-racial and non-sexist state.
2. Common citizenship.
3. A National constitution shall be supreme law of the land.
4. Separation of powers - legislative, executive and judiciary with appropriate checks and balances.
5. Independent and impartial judiciary. Supreme court to be empowered to decide on the constitution.
6. Enforceable human rights.
7. Diversity of languages, culture and religion shall be acknowledged.
8. Representative, accountable government at all levels.
9. Universal adult suffrage, common voters' roll and proportional representation.
10. Non-discriminatory legislation - race, gender etc.
11. Equality before the law.
12. Three tiers of government each with appropriate legislature, executive and fiscal powers. Powers and functions as well as boundaries to be entrenched in the constitution.
13. Delegation of powers.
14. The National Government shall have overriding power only in such matters that are not allocated exclusively in the constitution to regional or local levels of government.
15. Special procedures involving the consent of regional representatives will be required for changes to the powers or boundaries of their respective regions.

16. Two houses of parliament.
17. Adoption of constitution:
2/3 Majority
18. Equality of constituent parts shall be guaranteed.
19. Deadlock - breaking mechanism to be in place - vertical and horizontal.

DIKWANKWETLA PARTY OF SOUTH AFRICA

666