

23.12.63.

Nothing more to report. I spoke to Mac. and he now confirms that A. will not be out by Xmas.

I said that the 90 days would be up on the 29th. He said no, on the 31st. I pointed out that October had 31 days. He said he would go into the matter. I then asked whether the 29th being a Sunday would affect the release and whether he would be released on the Saturday or the following Monday. He said the fact that its a Sunday would not matter.

Nothing to report todays phone call.

Am phoning every morning until I get definite news.

Best wishes for 1964.

P.S. Found the enclosed in suit which was to go to the cleaners. The note indicated that the trousers were to be let out  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches and also lengthened  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches and also cleaned. The verbal message was that it did not mean anything.

I wonder whether he has grown or whether they were too short in the first instance. However, his girth has definitely increased.
