Dear Sirs,

Further to my letter addressed to you today, concerning the United Nations delegation to CODESA, the Secretary-General has decided that the United Nations delegation will be led by Mrs. Sadako Ogata, United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and Personal Representative of the United Nations Secretary-General to CODESA and H.E. Prof. Ibrahim Gambari, Chairman of the United Nations Special Committee against Apartheid and Permanent Representative of Nigeria to the United Nations. The third member of the delegation will be Mr. Sotirios Mousouris, Assistant Secretary-General, United Nations Centre against Apartheid.

They will be accompanied by:

1. Mr. Soren Jessen-Petersen, Chef de Cabinet, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.
2. Mr. Leonard Kapungu, Chief, Africa and Asia Unit, Office for Research and the Collection of Information.
3. Ms. Aracelly Santana, Senior Political Affairs Officer, United Nations Centre against Apartheid.
4. Mr. Michael Moller, Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary-General, United Nations Centre against Apartheid.

Mr. Abdullahi A. Omaki, Special Assistant to Ambassador Gambari, will travel with the delegation.
