

Constitution of the African National Congress

As adopted at its forty-eighth National Conference

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

Whereas the ANC was founded in 1912 to defend and advance the rights of the African people after the violent destruction of their independence and the creation of the white supremacist Union of South Africa; and

Whereas in the course of fulfilling this historic aim, the ANC has emerged to lead the struggle of all democratic and patriotic forces to destroy the apartheid state and replace it with the united, non-racial, non-sexist and democratic South Africa in which the people as a whole shall govern and all shall enjoy equal rights; and

Whereas through the struggles and sacrifices of its members over the generations the ANC has come to be recognised as the central organiser and inspirer of a vast popular upsurge against apartheid, involving a great array of social, cultural, religious, trade union, professional and political organisations.

NOW THEREFORE, THE FORTY EIGHTH NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE ANC, DULY CONSTITUTED AND ASSEMBLED, COGNISANT OF THE HISTORIC MISSION OF THE ANC AND OF THE NEED TO BUILD A MASS BASED DEMOCRATIC STRUCTURE TO ENABLE IT TO FULFILL ITS HISTORIC MISSION, HEREBY ADOPTS THIS CONSTITUTION.

A. NAME

The name of the organisation shall be the African National Congress, hereinafter referred to as the ANC.

B. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The aims and objectives of the ANC shall be:

1. To unite all the people of South Africa, Africans in particular, for the complete liberation of the country from all forms of discrimination and national oppression.
2. To end apartheid in all its forms and transform South Africa as rapidly as possible into a united, non-racial, non-sexist and democratic country based on the principles of the Freedom Charter.
3. To defend the democratic gains of the people and advance towards a society in which the government is freely chosen by the people according to the principles of universal suffrage on a common voter's roll.
4. To fight for social justice and eliminate the vast inequalities created by apartheid and the system of national oppression.
5. To build a South African nation with a common patriotism and loyalty in which the cultural, linguistic and religious diversity of the people is recognised.
6. To promote economic development for the benefit of all.
7. To support and advance the cause of national liberation, women's emancipation, development, world peace, disarmament and respect of the environment.
8. To support and promote the struggle for the rights of children.

C. CHARACTER OF THE ANC

1. The ANC is a non-racial and a democratic liberation movement.
2. The ANC is a democratic organisation whose policies are determined by the membership and whose leadership shall be accountable to the membership in terms of the procedures laid down in the Constitution.
3. The ANC shall in its composition and functioning be non-racial, anti-racist and anti-sexist and against any form of tribalistic exclusivism or ethnic chauvinism.
4. While striving for the maximum unity of purpose and functioning, the ANC shall respect the linguistic, cultural and religious diversity of its members.
5. The ANC shall support the emancipation of women, combat sexism and ensure that the voice of women is fully heard in the organisation and that women are properly represented at all levels.
6. The principles of freedom of speech and free circulation of ideas and information shall operate within the ANC.
7. Membership of all bodies of the ANC will be open to all men and women in the organisation without regard to race, colour or creed.
8. The ANC co-operates closely with religious bodies in the country and provides, on an interfaith basis, for the recognition of the spiritual needs of its many members who are believers.

D. MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership of the ANC shall be open to all South Africans above the age of 18 years, irrespective of race, colour and creed, who accept its principles, policies and programmes and are prepared to abide by its Constitution and rules.

2. Spouses, or children of South Africans who have manifested a clear identification with the South African people and its struggle, may apply for membership.
3. All other persons who have manifested a clear identification with the South African people and their struggle and are resident in South Africa, may apply for membership.
4. The NEC may, acting on its own or on the recommendation of branch or regional executive committees, grant honorary membership to those men and women who do not qualify for membership under Clause D1, 2 and 3, but who have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to the ANC and its programme.
5. Applications for membership shall be considered by the branch committee where such exists, and by the regional executive committee if no branch committee exists. The branch committee, the regional executive committee, or such interim structures as the REC or NEC may create from time to time to decide on applications, shall have the power to accept or refuse any application for membership provided such acceptance or refusal shall be subject to review by the next higher organ of the ANC.
6. Membership cards shall be issued to registered members of the ANC and to persons whose application for membership has been accepted, subject to review as aforesaid, and, in all cases, subject to payment of the prescribed subscription.
7. On being accepted in the ANC, a new member shall, in a language he or she knows well, make the following solemn declaration to the body or person who received the application:

I, solemnly declare that I will abide by the aims and objectives of the ANC as set out in the Constitution and the Freedom Charter, that I am joining the organisation voluntarily and without motives of personal gain or material advantage, and that I will participate in the life of the organisation as a loyal, active and disciplined member.

8. Members shall pay an annual subscription fee as determined by the National Executive Committee.

Non earning members or those on reduced incomes will pay a flat fee at a low amount fixed by the NEC.

E. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE MEMBERS

1. Rights:

A member of the ANC shall have the right to:

- h) Inform his or her branch of movement to any other area and report to the branch committee secretary on arriving at any new area.
- i) Refrain from publishing and/or distributing any media without authorisation which purports to be the view of any organised grouping, faction or tendency within the ANC.

F. ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

- 1. The ANC shall consist of the following organs:
 - a) The National Conference which elects the NEC.
 - b) The Regional Conference which elects the regional executive committees.
 - c) The Regional General Councils.
 - d) The branch meetings which elect the branch committees.

2. Branches may be grouped together into zones and may be subdivided into small units such as street committees, and zones may be grouped into sub-regions.
3. The ANC Women's League shall be open to women who are members of the ANC and shall have the same basic structure, namely national, regional and branch. Its objectives will be to defend and advance the rights of women, both inside and outside the ANC, against all forms of national, social and gender oppression and to ensure that women play a full role in the life of the organisation, in the peoples struggle and in national life. The Women's League will function as an autonomous body within the overall structure of the ANC, of which it will be an integral part, with its own Constitution, Rules and Regulations provided that these shall not be in conflict with the Constitution and policies of the ANC.
4. The ANC Youth League shall be open to all persons between the ages of 14 and 35. It will operate on a national, regional and branch basis. Its objectives will be to unite and lead young men and women in confronting and dealing with the problems that face the youth, and in ensuring that the youth make a full and rich contribution to the work of the ANC and the life of the nation. The Youth League will function as an autonomous body within the overall structure of the ANC, of which it will be an integral part, with its own Constitution, Rules and Regulations provided that these shall not be in conflict with the Constitution and policies of the ANC.
5. Members of the Youth League over the age of 18, shall be expected to play a full part in the general political life of the ANC.

A member of the Youth League shall not be eligible for any position as office-bearer of the ANC or to attend ANC conferences, members or executive meetings of the ANC (unless specially invited) unless he/she is a full member of the ANC.

G. UMKHONTO WE SIZWE (MK)

1. Pending the creation of a united defence force representing the whole of the South African nation and defending the principles of a new non-racial, non-sexist democratic constitution, Umkhonto we Sizwe (MK) shall continue as an honoured and integral part of the ANC under the political guidance and control of the NEC.
2. The NEC shall from time to time determine MK's tasks and functions.
3. Membership of MK shall be drawn from ANC structures and shall be on the basis of free and voluntary choice.
4. The NEC shall be responsible for the general welfare and interests of the cadres and, where appropriate, ex-cadres of MK who continue to be members of the ANC.

5. Have the power to elect or appoint any Commission or committee and assign specific tasks and duties to such Commission or committee.

L. NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. Powers

The National Executive Committee is the highest organ of the ANC between Conferences and shall have the authority to lead the organization, subject to the provisions of this Constitution.

Without prejudice to the generality of its powers, the NEC shall:

- (a) carry out the decisions and instructions of the National Conference;
- (b) issue and send directives and instructions to and receive reports from the regions;
- (c) supervise and direct the work of the ANC and all its organs generally;
- (d) ensure that the regional and branch structures of the ANC function democratically and effectively;
- (e) oversee the work of the Women's League and the Youth League;
- (f) establish departments and set up committees as it considers appropriate;
- (g) manage and control all the national and international property and assets of the ANC;
- (h) receive reports, supervise the work of, and delegate such functions to the NWC as it considers necessary.
- (i) issue documents and other policy directives as and when it deems fit.
- (j) confer such honours as it may deem appropriate.

2. The National Executive Committee (NEC), except where otherwise stipulated, shall be elected by secret ballot by the National Conference and shall hold office for three years and shall be constituted as follows:

- (a) The President, Deputy President, National Chairperson, the Secretary General, Deputy Secretary General and the Treasurer General who shall be elected separately by the National Conference.
- (b) Fifty (50) members of the NEC shall be elected by secret ballot by the National Conference.
- (c) The Chairperson and the secretary of each elected ANC Regional Executive Committee who shall be ex officio members of the NEC.
- (d) The National President and Secretary of the ANC Women's League who shall be ex officio members of the NEC.
- (e) The National President and Secretary of the ANC Youth League who shall be ex officio members of the NEC.
- (f) Two (2) members of the military headquarters of MK appointed by the NEC who shall be ex officio members of the NEC.
- (g) The NEC shall have the power to co-opt not more than three (3) additional members at any time during its term of office in order to provide for a balanced representation that reflects the true character of the South African people, provided that such co-option enjoys the support of the Regional Executive Committee and the branch from which the proposed person comes.
- (h) Should a vacancy occur on the NEC for any reason, the NEC shall have the power to co-opt a replacement.

3. Nominations for the NEC members referred to in 2(a) and (b) above shall be by the following procedure:

(a) i) Nominations for the post of:

President

Deputy President

National Chairperson

Secretary General

Deputy Secretary General

Treasurer General

shall be made by any region and placed before the national conference.

ii) A delegate to the conference shall, however, have the right to nominate any person whose name has not been proposed in terms of sub-section (i) above. In such event the presiding officer shall call for seconders to the nomination. If such nomination is seconded by a minimum of ten percent (10%) of conference delegates, then such nomination shall be regarded as having been duly seconded, in which event the name of such nominee shall be placed on the ballot paper. If the nomination fails to secure a minimum of 10% of conference delegates, such nomination shall fall away.

(b) Nominations of candidates for the National Executive Committee other than the above positions shall be carried out by the following procedure:

i) Subject to sub-section 3(b)(ii) below, only those candidates who have been proposed by a region shall appear on the National Conference ballot paper.

- ii) A delegate to the conference shall, however, have the right to nominate any person whose name has not been proposed in terms of sub-section (i) above. In such event the presiding officer shall call for seconders to the nomination. If such nomination is seconded by a show of hands by a minimum of 10% of Conference delegates, then such nomination shall be regarded as having been duly seconded, in which event the name of such nominee shall be placed on the ballot paper. If the nomination fails to secure a minimum of 10% of delegates, such nomination shall fall away.
 - iii) Not more than two persons per region may be nominated in terms of 3(b)(ii) above.
- (c) Voting shall take place by secret ballot. Each voting delegate shall vote once in each ballot.
 - (d) If any regional Chairperson or Secretary is elected to the NEC in his/her own right, such person shall vacate the regional position.
 - (e) For purposes of nominations, external regions shall be regarded as one region and MK as one region.
- 4.1 Subject to the other provisions of this constitution, members of the NEC shall not necessarily be full-time functionaries of the ANC.
- 4.2 After its election the NEC shall undertake the following:
- (a) As soon as possible after the conclusion of the National Conference the NEC shall meet and elect a National Working Committee.

- (b) The National Working Committee shall be constituted as follows:

The President, Deputy President, National Chairperson, Secretary-General, Deputy Secretary-General and Treasurer-General plus twenty (20) other elected members of the NEC.

- (c) The members of the National Working Committee shall be full-time functionaries of the ANC and shall each be allocated specific departmental responsibilities, consistent with the areas of specialisation demanded by the struggle for a democratic South Africa and the tasks which will have to be addressed in the immediate aftermath of the transition.

- 4.3 The NEC shall meet in plenary session at least once every three months and shall provide broad political and organisational perspectives to the National Working Committee.

5. Electoral Commission

The NEC shall appoint an Electoral Commission of not less than three members whose task it will be:

- (a) To prepare the ballot papers as directed by the constitution.
- (b) To make provision for ballot boxes or other means of secret voting.
- (c) To create machinery for the counting of ballot papers and the effective supervision of the counting of votes.

(d) To announce the results of all ballots and make known the number of votes received by each successful candidate.

(e) To establish procedures for voting to determine any dispute raised in regard to elections and election procedures, and to determine how any tied vote should be resolved.

6. The names of the electoral commission whose work must commence before conference opens shall be submitted to the conference for endorsement and they shall then be reinforced by a representative appointed by each regional delegation.

7. No structure, individual or group of individuals shall be permitted to produce and canvass for the election of any list of candidates at any level in the organisation. This prohibition excludes lists authorised by the nomination process stipulated above.

M. THE NATIONAL WORKING COMMITTEE

The National Working Committee (NWC) shall:

1. Carry out decisions and instructions of the National Conference and the NEC.
2. Conduct the current work of the ANC and ensure that regions and branches carry out decisions of ANC.
3. Submit a report to each NEC meeting.

N. GENDER AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

In an endeavour to ensure that women are adequately represented in all decision-making structures, the ANC shall implement a programme of affirmative action.

The method of such implementation shall be addressed in all ANC structures immediately and on a continuing basis.

6. Matters shall be attended to expeditiously.
7. In addition to misconduct which directly violates the norms of the ANC, any abuse of office, corruption, sexual harassment or misappropriation of funds shall give rise to proceedings.
8. Proceedings may also be brought against members who behave in a disgraceful way that brings the organisation into disrepute or manifests a flagrant violation of the moral integrity expected of members.
9. Disciplinary proceedings shall not be brought as a means of solving private problems or as a means of interfering in the private lives of members where the norms of the organisation are not directly affected.
10. Members who fail to pay their subscriptions for six months and having been reminded of their lapse, have failed to bring same up to date, shall be regarded as members not in good standing until they bring their arrears up to date.
11. Should a person be expelled from the ANC, such expulsion shall be made public, provided that if an affected member has appealed against his/her expulsion, it shall only be made public if the appeal has failed.

Z. RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The NEC shall have the power to adopt rules and regulations for the better carrying out of the activities of the ANC.
2. The RECs shall have the power to adopt rules and regulations for the better functioning of the ANC in their respective regions.
3. All such rules and regulations shall be consistent with the constitutional norms of the ANC, and rules and regulations framed by the REC shall only become operative when approved by the NEC, or, on a provisional basis pending approval by the NEC, by the NWC.
4. The NEC shall have the power to frame a code of conduct to cover all structures, officials, office bearers and members.

ZA. GENERAL

The ANC shall have perpetual succession and power, apart from its individual members, to acquire, hold and alienate property, enter into agreements, and do all things necessary to carry out its aims and objects and defend its members, its property and its reputation.

ZB. AMENDMENTS

Any amendments to this Constitution shall be by a two-thirds majority vote at the National Conference. Notice of intention to propose any amendments to the constitution should be forwarded to the Office of the Secretary General at least three months before the National Conference.
