DATE: 27 April

YOUR NAME: Steve Townsend

What kind of incident was it? (Please tick)

Intimidation ... Violence ...

Cheating ... Overcrowding ...

Mistake by Official ... Long Delays ...

Other (please fill in) Voters without ID's

Time of incident: 9:40 am

Describe what happened: I was informed by the EC Monitor that some voters standing in the queue did not have ID's. I discussed this with the P.O. (Mr Hambley), who allowed me to use his phone to phone the CT Zonal Office. They informed that voters reg cards could be obtained at the Milnerton Town Hall. They also said they would try to arrange transport. They agreed to call back in 15-20 mins. I then spoke to the people in the queue and explained this. Language was a problem and my Afrikaans needed to be translated to the person(s) in question. I am not sure I was understood.

What action was taken by the Presiding Officer or other officials?

At 10:00 someone arrived with transport and took the one young woman to the Milnerton Town Hall. I am impressed and I hope she was.
