REGINA

versus

JAMES ANDREWS AND OTHERS

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO QUASH CHARGE

NOTICE is hereby given in terms of Section 168(1) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955, that at the hearing of the abovementioned matter in the Regional Court, Paarl, on January, 18th, 1960, application will be made before plea in terms of Section 167(1) of the said Act, to quash the charge in the abovementioned matter on the following grounds:

That the Charge Sheet, as amplified by Further Particulars, is calculated to embarrass and prejudice the Accused, more particularly in that -

By the use in Paragraphs A and B of the Further Particulars supplied, of phrases such as "with some other Accused who may still be identified at the trial", the Charge Sheet leaves each accused in the dark as to all the ways in which he is alleged to have involved himself in the public violence charged.
