Zola,

What do you think of this?
You will see that I have taken the Preamble our Committee worked on, out of the freezer. I think it works very well, and doesn't compromise the compactness of the Constitutional Principles themselves. If you think it is too much, we can just have a simple sentence:

Bearing in mind the wish of the overwhelming majority of South Africans to have a new constitution based on universally accepted principles of democracy and freedom ...

Zola,

Here are two possible versions. I love version one - you should recognise it!

I'm at the Writers' Conference
(New Nation) near CALS (du Plessis Centre) and staying at the Johannisberger Hotel till Thursday

and Valli.

Booms -

Did you receive this?

They have pulled right back.

Nothing on commitment to be bound. An inelegant statement based purely on their original formulations. I think we should prepare to do battle. There was overwhelming support for a commitment to be bound. Without that we have a talking-shop

(they call it a forum).

The Constitutional Committee is meeting at the Bradenfontein Hotel today.

After careful consideration I propose that we confine the Declaration of Intent to the statement as contained in the concept attached hereto.

The question of how to arrive at resolutions, the status of such resolutions and the implementation of resolutions are matters that should be dealt with separately.

I can be contacted over the weekend at (0464) 81587

Your faithfully

DR J T DELPORT MP

DEPUTY MINISTER OF CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT
