On the 26th April, 1963, in the morning there came two G.I.'s who took me to Bellwell Police Station and questioned me about Pogo. I told them that I knew nothing about Pogo and I was just a month out of Hospital. They told me that I am a Pogo member. I told them to bring the one who told them that I am a Pogo member, and they never brought him. They asked me if I can write or read, I told them that I never went to school, and I can just speak a little bit of English. They asked me if I ever worked at Helmsley hotel, I said yes. I worked there from 1960-63.
