TRANSITIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Establishment of the Transitional Executive Council

2. There is hereby established a council to be known as the Transitional Executive Council, which shall have the executive and other powers set out in this Act or in any other law.

Objects of Council

3. The objects of the Council shall be to promote, in conjunction with all existing legislative and executive structures at all levels of government in South Africa, the preparation for and transition to a democratic order in South Africa by -
- (a) creating and promoting a climate for free political participation by endeavouring to -
- (i) eliminate any impediments to legitimate political activities;
- (ii) eliminate any form of intimidation which has a bearing on the said transition;

- (iii) ensure that all political parties are free to canvass support from voters, to organize and hold meetings and to have access to all voters for the purposes thereof; and
- (iv) ensure that no Government or administration exercises any of its powers in such a way so as to advantage or prejudice any political party;
- (b) creating and promoting conditions conducive to the holding of free and fair elections;
- (c) performing such functions as may be assigned to it by or under this Act or any other law.

Constitution of Council

4. (1) Each Government, party or organization which -
- (a) is or was represented on the Negotiating Council of the Multi-Party Negotiating Process at any time during that Process; and
  - (b) by notice in writing to the Negotiating Council:
    - (i) commits itself to the objects of the Council;
    - (ii) undertakes to be bound by and to implement the decisions of the Council; and
    - (iii) renounces violence as a means of achieving political objects,
- shall be a participant in the Council and be entitled to be represented by one member on the Council.
- (2) A participant in the Council that wishes to be represented on the Council shall within seven days after the commencement of this Act by notice in writing to the State President nominate a member and an alternate member to the Council.
- (3) The State President shall within seven days after the receipt of such a notice by notice in the Gazette appoint the persons so nominated as a member and alternate member, respectively, of the Council, and either in a full-time or part-time capacity, as may be determined by the Negotiating Council of the Multi-Party Negotiating Process.

- (4) (a) If the Council determines that any Government, political party or organization which is not a participant in the Council but which has committed itself to the objects of the Council and which has undertaken in writing to be bound by and to implement the decisions of the Council, should be such a participant, the Council shall notify the State President in writing, and the State President shall by proclamation in the Gazette declare that Government, political party or organization to be a participant in the Council.
- (b) Subsections (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of a participant referred to in paragraph (a).
- (5) If a member of the Council is for any reason unable to perform the duties of of his or her office, the alternate member concerned shall act in the place of that member, and for that purpose that alternate member shall have all the powers and rights of the member concerned.
- (6) Any participant in the Council which fails or refuses to nominate a member on the Council or terminates or suspends its participation in the Council shall nevertheless remain bound by the obligations it incurred by becoming such a participant.

Vacation of office, removal from office and filling of vacancies in Council

5. (1) If a member of the Council loses the confidence of the participant which nominated that member, the Council, on being advised thereof in writing by the participant concerned, shall inform the State President in writing, and the State President shall by proclamation in the Gazette remove that person from office.
- (2) If a member of the Council dies, resigns from office (which shall be in writing to the State President) or is removed from office in terms of subsection (1), the participant previously represented by that member shall be entitled to nominate another person as a member of the Council, and in respect of such nomination section 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of an alternate member.

Conditions of service, remuneration and allowances of members of Council and Subcouncils

6. (1) The conditions of service, remuneration, allowances and other benefits of members of the Council and the Subcouncils shall be determined by the State President in consultation with the Multi-Party Negotiating Process.
- (2) Those members of the Council who receive remuneration, allowances or other benefits by virtue of their employment by or position in any government or public service and who continue to receive such remuneration, allowances or other benefits while serving on the Council or a subcouncil shall not receive any remuneration, allowance or other benefits by virtue of subsection (1), except to the extent required to place those members in the position in which they would have been were it not for such employment or position.
- (3) The remuneration, allowances and conditions of service contemplated in this section may differ according to whether a member is a full-time or part-time member of the Council.
- (4) An alternate member shall be entitled to such allowances, if any, as may be determined by the Council.

General powers of Council

7. (1) The Council shall, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by this Act or any other law, for the purpose of achieving its objects, have the power to -
  - (a) request and obtain, subject to this Act, all such information, including records, as may be necessary for that purpose;
  - (b) direct a subcouncil to enquire into and to advise the Council on any matter in connection with the functions of the Council;
  - (c) initiate or participate in negotiations relating to its functions and objects;
  - (d) appoint staff to assist it or a subcouncil in the performance of its functions, and in consultation with the State President to determine their conditions of service, remuneration, allowances and other benefits;

- (e) request the secondment of skilled personnel from any public service to assist the Council or a subcouncil in the performance of its functions;
- (f) make rules providing for the convening of and procedure at meetings of the Council and Subcouncils;
- (g) appoint from among its members office-bearers either on a fixed or rotational basis;
- (h) appoint a person or body to investigate any matter relating to the Council's functions and to report thereon;
- (i) open and administer its own financial accounts; and
- (j) take such legal steps as are necessary to give effect to this Act or any decision taken under this Act.

NOTE: The question of any further general or specific powers will be re-examined once the powers of the Subcouncils have been completed and the Technical Committee can review the structure as a whole.

- (2) The Council may delegate to a subcouncil any of its powers, but it shall not be divested of a power so delegated.
- (3) The Council shall, in respect of a power delegated under subsection (2) or a power referred to in sections 12 to 17, have the power to -
  - (a) be informed of any relevant decision or recommendation of a subcouncil;
  - (b) review, amend or withdraw that decision or recommendation; and
  - (c) exercise that power itself. re

Constitution of Subcouncils

9. (1) The members of the Subcouncils shall be appointed by the Council, which shall give notice in the Gazette of each such appointment.
- (2) Unless the Council, for good reasons, determines otherwise, the membership of a subcouncil -
- (a) shall not exceed six;
  - (b) shall not be restricted to members of the Council.

- (3) The Council shall as far as possible see to it that no Government, political party or organization shall have more than one representative on a particular subcouncil.
- (4) If a member of a subcouncil is for any reason unable to perform the duties of his or her office, the Council may nominate in writing a substitute member to act in the place of the member concerned, and for that purpose that substitute member shall have all the powers and rights of the member concerned.

Vacation of office, removal from office and filling of vacancies in subcouncils

10. (1) If a member of a subcouncil loses the confidence of the Council, the Council shall remove that member from office.
- (2) If a member of a subcouncil dies, resigns from office or is removed from office in terms of subsection (1), the Council shall appoint another member to that subcouncil and give notice of such appointment in the Gazette.

General powers of Subcouncils

11. (1) Unless determined otherwise by the Council, the Subcouncils, shall have the power to -
  - (a) request and obtain, subject to this Act, all such information including records as may be necessary for the purpose of achieving its objects and performing its functions;
  - (b) initiate or participate in negotiations relating to its functions and objects;
  - (c) appoint a person or body to investigate any matter relating the Council's functions and to report thereon; and
  - (d) appoint from among its members office-bearers either on a fixed or rotational basis.
- (2) (a) A subcouncil may establish one or more subcommittees to assist it in the performance of its functions.

- (b) A member of a subcommittee may be but need not be a member of the Council or of the Subcouncil concerned.

Powers and duties in regard to regional and local government

12. The Council shall, for the purposes of achieving its objects, have the following powers to be exercised through its Subcouncil on Regional and Local Government:

- (a) To acquaint itself with and monitor developments, policy objectives and targets in relation to regional and local government for the period of the transition;
- (b) in regard to regional and local government matters administered by any government or regional or local government, to propose the amendment, repeal or enactment of legislation, including subordinate legislation;
- (c) to promote the objects of the Council generally, and in particular in regard to regional and local government elections, and to educate the public on the electoral processes;
- (d) to liaise with all organizations and structures relevant to its functions, including the Local Government Negotiating Forum, regional governments, the Electrification Forum, the National Peace Secretariat, demarcation boards or commissions, the Independent Electoral Commission and the National Housing Forum;
- (e) to be advised of and to make proposals regarding regional and local government budgets, the powers, duties and functions and the restructuring and rationalisation of regional and local government administrations, transitional measures, interim local government structures and the demarcation of boundaries, and shall consult with the Local Government Negotiating Forum regarding such proposals;
- (f) to monitor, make recommendations and render assistance, where practical, regarding the collapse of services and shortfall of finances in local government;
- (g) to request and obtain information regarding -
  - (i) the disposal and intended disposal of provincial, regional and local government assets;
  - (ii) intended loans by any local government.

- (h) to make recommendations to the appropriate institutions and authorities on:
  - (i) legislative and executive measures, either existing or proposed, which may effect traditional leaders' powers during the transition;
  - (ii) free and fair political participation in the areas of traditional leaders; and
  - (iii) matters of material concern to the communities of traditional leaders.

Rationalising public admin in regions

Powers and duties in regard to law and order, stability and security

13. (1) The Council shall, for the purposes of achieving its objects, have the following powers and duties to be exercised through its Subcouncil on Law and Order, Stability and Security:
- (a) To establish a national inspectorate comprised of policemen and policewomen and such other persons as the Subcouncil may appoint, which inspectorate shall be tasked with investigating and monitoring all policing agencies and liaising with inspectorates of all relevant policing agencies to ensure the promotion of the objects of the Council;
  - (b) to investigate, or order the investigation by the national inspectorate of, any matter which relates to the Council's objects, and for the purposes hereof the Subcouncil and the national inspectorate shall have the authority to interview such persons as they may consider necessary, have access to all such documents and to police facilities as may be necessary for purposes of the investigation;
  - (c) to establish, in consultation with the appropriate Ministers responsible for the various policing agencies, a national independent complaints mechanism under the control of a civilian, which shall be tasked with the receipt and investigation of complaints lodged by members of the public concerning alleged police misconduct;
  - (d) to request and obtain any information or crime intelligence reports compiled by any policing agency;
  - (e) to establish a committee comprised of local experts or of local and international experts, to evaluate or monitor any police action, conduct or reform which relates to the objects of the Council;
  - (f) to call for a report on and evaluate the impact of any steps taken by any policing agency to prevent political violence, including such steps as any policing agency is required to take in terms of the National Peace Accord and relevant legislation;

- (g) to recommend steps to improve the effectiveness of and community co-operation with policing agencies, and to recommend to the Council the adoption of measures to be taken by the participants in the Council in this regard;
  - (h) to receive all recommendations of the Police Board, and to request the Police Board to conduct inquiries and to make recommendations with respect to any policing policy;
  - (i) to make recommendations regarding effective and co-ordinated control of policing agencies;
  - (j) to require minutes of and attend any relevant meeting of any policing agency;
  - (k) to formulate a statement of values and objects for the promotion of law, order, peace, stability and security for policing agencies and para-military organisations, and to introduce or amend a code of conduct which may be made binding on any policing agency, all participants in the Council and, with the consent of any signatory of the National Peace Accord not participating in the Council, on that signatory as well;
  - (l) to require the investigation of any activity or action by a member of a policing agency which is alleged to have or to have had the effect of undermining the objects of the Council and, in consultation with the appropriate Minister, where necessary, require the suspension, with full pay, of such member pending the outcome of the investigation;
  - (m) to liaise with the Independent Electoral Commission and the National Peace Secretariat concerning matters relevant to the objects of the Council;
  - (n) to receive all proposed regulations and directives governing the activities of the National Peace-keeping Force and to make recommendations in regard thereto.
- (2) (a) A Minister who has the authority to declare a state of emergency or an unrest area and to promulgate emergency regulations, shall, subject to paragraph (b), do so in consultation with the Subcouncil on Law and Order, Stability and Security.
- (b) Where the circumstances are urgent and pressing and the Minister is unable to consult with the Subcouncil before making such a declaration, he or she may make such declaration which shall remain in force unless the Subcouncil declines to give its approval thereto.

- (c) If the Minister and the Subcouncil or, as the case may be, the Council are unable to reach agreement as to the desirability or otherwise of a declaration referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), either party may require a committee, composed from the civilian membership of the Police Board, to determine the matter, which determination shall be given within three days of the referral and which shall be final and binding and be given effect to.
  - (d) The committee referred to in paragraph (c) shall be comprised of the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson of the Police Board and one other member elected by the members of the Board.
- (3) To the extent that it may impact upon the objects of the Council, a decision to enter into an agreement of the nature contemplated in section 34G of the Police Act, 1958 (Act No 7 of 1958), shall be taken by the responsible Minister in consultation with the Subcouncil.
  - (4) A Minister, exercising the powers in terms of section 3 of the Police Act, 1958 or the appropriate functionary exercising corresponding powers provided for in corresponding legislation of the Republic of Transkei, Bophuthatswana, Venda or Ciskei or any self-governing territory, in relation to an officer of the rank of brigadier or above, shall act in consultation with this Subcouncil, which may propose such action itself: Provided that if no agreement is reached between the Minister and the Subcouncil or the Council, as the case may be, either party may refer the matter to the committee referred to in subsection (2)(c) for determination, which determination shall be given within 7 days of the referral and shall be final and binding and be given effect to.
  - (5) To the extent that it may impact upon the objects of the Council, a Minister exercising the powers in terms of section 33 of the Police Act, 1958 or the appropriate functionary exercising corresponding powers provided for in corresponding legislation of the Republic of Transkei, Bophuthatswana, Venda or Ciskei or any self-governing territory, to issue, amend or repeal regulations governing relevant aspects of police conduct, functioning, structures and restructuring in the course of public order policing, shall act in consultation with the Subcouncil, which may propose such action itself: Provided that if no agreement is reached between the Minister and the Subcouncil or the Council, as the case may be, either party may refer the matter to the committee referred to in subsection (2)(c) for determination, which determination shall be given within 7 days of the referral and which shall be final and binding and be given effect to.

- (6) (a) The various policing agencies shall second officers of the rank of Brigadier or above to the Subcouncil to assist it in drafting rules governing the conduct of members of the said agencies and the co-ordinated control of such agencies in so far as that conduct or the functions of those agencies have a bearing on the objects of the Council.
- (b) The said rules shall be formulated within one month after the establishment of the Subcouncil and shall be promulgated by the Council in the Gazette.
- (c) The rules may provide that a contravention thereof or a failure to comply shall be an offence.
- (d) The officers referred to in paragraph (a) may be summonsed at any time to assist the Subcouncil in the performance of its functions.

Powers and duties in regard to defence

- 14. The Council shall, for the purposes of achieving its objects, have the following powers to be exercised through its Subcouncil on Defence:
  - (1) (a) To be kept informed by each defence force and armed force of any participant (excluding policing agencies), hereinafter referred to as "military forces", regarding the activities of such military forces, including, but not restricted to, the planning, preparation and execution of any action by such military forces likely to have an adverse impact on the Council's objects;
  - (b) to be kept informed by any Government or administration of any proposed legislation (including subordinate legislation) and internal directives or regulations regarding the conduct and deployment of any military force;
  - (c) to investigate through an independent body, or to require the investigation into the conduct of any member or unit of a military force which may be in breach of any applicable code of conduct or disciplinary code or is intended to, or likely to adversely affect the objects of the Council;
  - (d) to recommend appropriate disciplinary or criminal proceedings and order, in consultation with the commander of the military force concerned, the confinement or suspension, on full pay, of any member or members of the military force concerned pending such proceedings, or recommend appropriate measures in regard to any unit or department of such military force;

- (e) to formulate and monitor the application and implementation of a code of conduct which shall be made binding on all members of all military forces;
  - (f) to undertake or to commission research into any relevant matter including, but not limited to, the parliamentary control, composition, manpower policy (including conscription), organization and executive command of a future South African Defence Force; the policy towards unofficial military and para-military organizations; and, the future of the arms and related industries;
  - (g) to oversee any planning, preparation and training of a future defence force;
  - (h) to liaise with the media and with the various military forces so as to keep both military forces and the public informed of developments regarding defence-related matters;
  - (i) to monitor media reporting on defence-related matters;
  - (j) to establish a co-ordinating council comprised of the commanders or such other persons appointed by the commanders of each military force which will be tasked with liaising with the structures of all military forces to ensure the promotion of the objects of the Council and to make recommendations to the Subcouncil concerning any military matters relating to its powers and duties; and
  - (k) to budget for and receive resources for the daily maintenance and administration of all non-governmental military forces which are governed by and accept the supervision of the Council in terms of this Act and which are recognised non-governmental military forces in terms of this Act.
- (2) A defence force may be deployed, with the approval of the appropriate Minister or Commander, in crime prevention and peacekeeping operations, but any such deployment shall, subject to subsection (3), be required to be in accordance with the regulations and procedures established by the Subcouncil in terms of subsection (3).
- (3) The Subcouncil shall, in consultation with the Minister of Defence, prescribe regulations governing the deployment and command of any military force in crime-prevention or peacekeeping operation, save that until such requirements and procedures have been duly promulgated in terms of this Act, a defence force may be deployed or continued to be deployed in terms of the existing requirements and procedures governing such intervention or deployment.

- (4) The Subcouncil shall review the deployment of any unit of a defence force in terms of such existing requirements and procedures within one month of the establishment of the Subcouncil.
- (5) The Subcouncil shall review, in consultation with the Minister of Defence, existing requirements and procedures for the deployment of defence forces in crime-prevention or peacekeeping operations within one month of the establishment of the Subcouncil.
- (6) In the event of the Subcouncil and the Minister of Defence being unable to agree on the regulations governing the deployment of military forces in crime-prevention and peacekeeping operations, the appropriate provisions of section 21 shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- (7) The regulations referred to in subsection (6) shall recognise that the day to day management of any military force remains the responsibility of the command structure of such military force, including routine transfers, training, promotion, and, in regard to the South African Defence Force, such day to day management shall include any routine defensive functions relating to the protection of the integrity of the borders of South Africa, save that the Subcouncil may impose limitations on such routine functions which are likely to interfere with the creation of a climate for free and fair elections.

NOTE: This subsection assumes re-incorporation of the TBVC states and will have to be re-drafted in light of future developments in this regard.

- (8) The Subcouncil shall establish monitoring mechanisms to ensure that its directives are complied with and that the activities of any military force have no negative impact on the creation of the conditions for free and fair elections, and may further establish any mechanism to ensure appropriate interaction between itself, the various military forces, the National Peacekeeping Force ("NPF"), policing agencies and any other relevant agency at national, regional or local level.
- (9) A Minister exercising powers in terms of the Defence Act, 1957 (Act No. 44 of 1957), or the appropriate functionary exercising corresponding powers provided for in the corresponding legislation of the Republics of Transkei,

Bophuthatswana, Venda or Ciskei to issue, amend or repeal regulations governing aspects of defence force conduct, functioning, structures and deployment, relevant to the Council's objects or any Commander of an armed force issuing directives in regard to the above matters, shall act in consultation with the Subcouncil, which may propose such regulations or amendments or repeal of regulations itself: Provided that if no agreement is reached between such Minister or functionary and the Subcouncil, the appropriate provisions of section 21 will apply mutatis mutandis.

- (10) Without derogating from the rights of any participant in the Council or any administration under section 19, the Commander of any military force shall ensure that any decision of the Subcouncil regarding the deployment or conduct of any military force is made known and binding upon the members of such military force including, where appropriate, promulgation thereof in terms of the relevant standing orders and disciplinary code.
- (11) The Subcouncil shall have the necessary responsibility to ensure the safekeeping, the audit and effective supervision of the arms and, the identification of the personnel of any military forces.

NOTE: The question relating to the State President's power to issue a declaration of martial law will be considered in the context of the whole question of the Council's possible powers in respect of the State President's prerogative and statutory powers.

- (12) (a) In this section a "non-governmental military force" shall mean Umkhonto we Sizwe, Azanian Peoples Liberation Army and any other force that the Subcouncil may from time to time determine.
- (b) In the application of this section no person shall be considered a member of a force referred to in paragraph (a) unless that person was a trained member of the force falling under its discipline and command at the commencement of this Act.
- (12) The Subcouncil (on Defence) shall budget for and be allocated the necessary resources to establish and maintain the NPF which force shall be comprised of elements of all military forces and policing agencies which fall under the authority and control of the participants in the Council which wish to contribute to such force.

NOTE: The Technical Committee is not in a position to make a firm recommendation regarding which Subcouncil should be responsible for the NPF, but proposes that the terms of reference should be as set out hereinafter.

- (13) The Subcouncil shall for these purposes establish a NPF Command Centre comprised of representatives of all the military forces and policing agencies which participate in the NPF.
- (14) The Subcouncil, in consultation with the NPF Command Centre, shall:
- (a) establish and see to the training of a unit of NPF instructors which may be drawn from the participating military forces and policing agencies but shall also include international experts;
  - (b) formulate the philosophy, doctrine, syllabi and training policy for the NPF;
  - (c) establish criteria for the recruitment, training and selection of NPF members provided that the NPF shall comprise representatives of all the military forces and policing agencies wishing to participate;
  - (d) establish the command structure of the NPF and shall appoint, and if it so decides, dismiss, the Commander and other senior officers of the NPF, who shall account to the Subcouncil through the NPF Command Centre;
  - (e) prescribe the jurisdiction of, and the circumstances for the deployment, of the NPF;
  - (f) make regulations governing the authority, control over, conditions of service, levels of remuneration of the NPF as well as interaction between it and any other armed force deployed in a peacekeeping operation or in the same area as the NPF;
  - (g) formulate and promulgate a disciplinary code including a code of conduct, which shall be made binding on the NPF;
  - (h) establish standard operational procedures for the NPF; and
  - (i) consult with other military and policing agencies regarding the establishment and operation of the NPF.
- (15) The South African Defence Force shall be responsible for supplying the NPF with the necessary and agreed upon uniforms, transport, accommodation, equipment, and other logistical support in accordance with the procedures and directions as decided upon by the Subcouncil in consultation with the NPF Command Centre, save that the NPF shall have its own distinctive uniform, vehicles and other insignia. The Subcouncil shall budget for and acquire funds for this purpose.

- (16) In the event of the Subcouncil and the NPF Command Centre being unable to reach a decision on the matters requiring to be regulated in terms of paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) and (h) of subsection 14 of this section the appropriate provisions of section 21 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Powers and duties in regard to finance

15. (1) The Council shall, for the purposes of achieving its objects, have the following powers to be exercised through its Subcouncil on Finance:
- (a) To be informed of recent economic developments, economic policy objectives and targets for the medium-term and more particularly, for the ensuing fiscal year (1994/1995);
  - (b) to be represented on all function and budgeting committees with a view to ensuring that funds are not applied in a manner favouring one or other political party;
  - (c) to receive such reports, and in addition such information relating to fiscal transfers, as are reasonably necessary for the Subcouncil to perform its functions in terms of this Act;
  - (d) to approve any measures designed to rationalise Treasury functions in the process of realignment of governmental structures during the transition;
  - (e) to advise the relevant departments concerning the privatisation or tendering out of functions currently performed by relevant departments of state;
  - (f) to investigate or require the investigation of allegations of general or specific corruption and inefficiency;
  - (g) to review the contents of existing Public Service disciplinary codes and to request disciplinary investigations into the conduct of public servants who fail to perform their tasks within guidelines governing financial discipline and authorised or proper expenditure;
  - (i) to make recommendations regarding the prevention of wasteful expenditure.
  - (j) to monitor any expenditure of public funds.

- (2) In the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties, the Subcouncil shall -
- (a) have access to all relevant information available from the Government, any department of state or provincial administration, the South African Reserve Bank, the Central Economic Advisory Service, the Tax Advisory Committee and the National Economic Forum; and
  - (b) be entitled to conduct such research as it deems necessary.
