DRAFT RESOLUTION OF PLENARY OF THE MULTI-PARTY NEGOTIATING PROCESS ON A MANDATE TO THE NEGOTIATING COUNCIL

We the representatives of participants in the Multi-Party Negotiating Process present at this Plenary held on Wednesday, 17 November 1993 at the World Trade Centre:

1. Salutes:

The commendable progress made by the Negotiating Council in concluding this phase of negotiations on constitutional issues;

2. Humbly Aware:

Of the momentous agreements reached in the negotiating process which provide a constructive foundation for a transition to democracy;

3. Recognising:

That the Negotiating Council still has matters before it which require further attention;

4. Therefore Resolves:

- 4.1 To adopt with acclaim the package of agreements presented by the Negotiating Council to this Plenary; and
- To reaffirm and commit ourselves to ensuring that the election takes place on 27 April 1994;

5. And Further Resolves to Mandate the Negotiating Council:

- To continue with the negotiating process in order to complete the work of the Multi-Party Negotiating Process; and to ensure that any matter that requires enactment and promulgation shall be effected;
- 5.2 To establish the Transitional Executive Council which shall be the successor to the Negotiating Council;
- To undertake such amendments to any Bill or Act already endorsed by the Plenary as might be necessary;

- 5.4 To submit such Bills or Acts to Parliament for consideration; and
- 5.5 To supervise the legislative process in respect of any amendments.
