Make your suggestions to Codesa

CODESA is an important forum for finding a peaceful resolution to our country's problems and a way to a democratic South Africa.

By decision of the preparatory meeting which launched Codesa, it was agreed that only bona fide political parties/organisations and administrations should be accorded full participant status.

At the same time the organisers of Codesa wish to encourage the greatest possible participation by all interest groups from every walk of life. Provision has been made for all interest groups to make submissions to the five Working Groups of Codesa in order that these are taken into account in the deliberations of the Working Groups.

We wish to take this opportunity to invite and encourage South African interest groups to make written submissions to the responsible Working Group on matters relevant to its Terms of Reference.

The five Working Groups established by Codesa 1 are:

Working Group 1: According to its Terms of Reference it will be dealing with the following two issues:

- a) Creation of a climate for free political participation, and
- b) The role of the international community.

Working Group 2: Which addresses:

- a) General constitutional principles
- b) Constitution making body/process.

Working Group 3: Which is required to address the issue of Transitional Arrangements/Interim Governments/Transitional Authority.

Working Group 4: Dealing with the question of the future of the TVBC States (ie, Transkei, Venda, Bophuthatswana, and Ciskei).

Working Group 5: Time Frames and the implementation of Codesa decisions.

The full Terms of Reference are for each Working Group available from the Secretariat of Codesa:

Tel: 011 397 1198

Fax: 011 397 2211

Address: World Trade Centre, Kempton Park

Postal Address: PO Box 307, Isando 1600

We would appreciate it if submissions reach us on or before March 2, 1992.
