FROM: The Media Committee, CODESA II

Due to accreditation enquiries made to the Media Committee of CODESA II, the Media Committee raised the issue of accrediting an extra official from the embassies with Convention Management. It was decided that each embassy could send the Head of Mission plus one official whose function will be to get all the documentation and to keep an eye on proceedings at the times when the Head of Mission may be involved in other ceremonial duties. This official will be accredited through the Media Committee but will not be allowed to use Media facilities. Only one official per embassy can be accredited with the media.

We therefore request you to send an application for an additional official to the Media Committee at fax number (011) 397-2060 as a matter of urgency. Embassies who have already submitted more than one name, should please inform which one should receive accreditation in terms of the above.
