Dear Professor Sachs:

John Quigley of Ohio State University Law School suggested that I get in touch with you because I hope to come to Mozambique this Spring. I plan to arrive around April 7 or so, and will stay several days.

I'm a member of the National Lawyers Guild, and it was at a Mideast Regional meeting of the NLG that I met John. I practice labor law in Detroit as one of the nine house counsel to the International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW). In addition to labor matters, I have strong interests in women's rights and international affairs.

If you have the time, I would be very interested in talking with you when I am in Maputo.

The only possible snag I foresee is difficulty in obtaining a visa. While I have already started this process, I have heard that they are hard to get. Any advice you may have on that subject would be appreciated.

I look forward to your reply, and hopefully to meeting you as well.

Yours,

Anne Trebilcock
