Dear Sirs,

The editor regrets that he is unable to publish the letter sent under cover of your letter of February 4, 1992, because our letters column is there for readers to express their views, not to make announcements. If we accommodated your letter, it would lead to many similar requests, putting an impossible burden on valued limited space.

Perhaps you would care to consider placing an advertisement? Our Advertising Manager is Mr Angus Robinson and he can be contacted at fax number 0431-435159.

Yours faithfully,

S. BUTLER (Mrs)

Re: Your letter 7 February 1992

The Secretariat deeply regrets the fact that your newspaper refused to carry our letter.

Frankly speaking, we fail to see your point because even if there was an element of an announcement to it, our letter (which it was. Not an advertisement!) was actually meant to be shared by all readers of your newspaper. If and when we need to place an advertisement we'll do so at an appropriate time and we will let you know.

Yours Sincerely

Murphy Morobe
