26 April 1994

TO: ANC PARTY VOTING AGENTS

VOTING DAYS, 27-28 APRIL 1994

1. BE CALM, DO NOT INTERFERE WITH VOTING

Today, on Special Voting Day, we all gained valuable experience.

ANC Party Voting Agents, monitors, information centre workers, our transport arrangements, IEC officials, other monitors and observers gained experience from successes and mistakes today.

Tomorrow, there will be much more pressure - so, we must learn from today's experience.

ANC Party Voting Agents must firmly represent ANC interests.

(For example, we must insist on the controlled areas being as close as possible to the voting stations.)

But, they must not interfere in the voting process.

(For example, we must not hinder the secrecy of the ballot for any voter.)

If there are problems which can not be solved calmly locally, please contact your zonal/sub-regional office - in the last resort, contact this office.

2. ANC VOTING ADVICE STICKERS ARE NOT ILLEGAL

The IEC now accepts that the ANC voting advice stickers are not illegal within the voting station.

However, we advise voters not to display them openly within the voting station. "Keep it in your pocket until you vote."
