

Draft no 3 17 December 1991

fully authorized

We, the representatives of political parties, political movements and administrations coming together at this first meeting of the Convention for a Democratic South Africa mindful of the awesome responsibility that rests on us at this moment in the history of our country, declare our solemn commitment:

1. to bring about an undivided South Africa with one nation sharing a common citizenship, patriotism and loyalty, pursuing amidst our diversity, freedom, equality and security for all irrespective of race, colour, sex or creed; a country free from apartheid or any other form of discrimination or domination. (to secure the advancement of all)
2. to work to heal the divisions of the past, and to establish a free and open society based on democratic values where the dignity, worth and rights of every South African are protected by law.
3. to create a climate conducive to peaceful constitutional change by eliminating violence, intimidation and destabilisation and by promoting free political participation, discussion and debate.
4. to strive to improve the quality of life of our people through policies that will promote economic growth and human development and ensure equal opportunities and social justice for all South Africans.
5. to set in motion the process of drawing up and establishing a constitution that will ensure:
 - a. that South Africa will be a united democratic, non-racial and non-sexist state in which sovereign authority is exercised over the whole of its territory.
 - b. that the Constitution will be the supreme law and that it will be guarded over by an independent, non-racial and impartial judiciary.
 - c. that there will be a multi-party democracy with the right to form and join political parties and with regular elections on the basis of universal adult suffrage on a common voters roll.
 - d. that all shall enjoy universally accepted human rights, freedoms and civil liberties including freedom of religion, speech and assembly protected by an entrenched and justiciable Bill of Rights and a legal system that guarantees equality of all before the law. on the basis of one person one vote

- e. ~~the Constitution shall~~ ^{the} acknowledge ^{ment} the diversity of languages, cultures and religions of the people of South Africa.
- f. that in general the basic electoral system shall be that of proportional representation.
- g. that there shall be a separation of powers between the legislature, executive and judiciary with appropriate checks and balances.

We further solemnly commit ourselves to be bound by the decisions of CODESA and in good faith to take all such steps as are within our power and authority to realise their implementation.
