Dear Albie,

I am writing to update you on the progress of our forthcoming production of Soft Vengeance, adapted from your book by our commissioned writer April De Angelis. I am aware that Joy has brought you upto date slightly, but thought I would fill in the details!

A copy of the Third Draft of the script is on its way to you as you read this. It should arrive within the next three days.

So far the production is progressing really well, with the opening planned in London for 14th September. As Joy I think has mentioned, we are planning a Gala performance of the production as a benefit on 17th September and would very much like you to attend if this is at all possible. We are currently working on the guest list but they will include all the national press, potential corporate funders and others of importance and influence! The aim of the evening is both to raise funds but also to assist raise our profile!! I understand that you may have to be in Harvard. I wonder whether it is possible for us to contact them and ask them either to rearrange for a day later, or whether you would be willing to take a late flight on 17th. We would ensure that a taxi was waiting at the theatre to take you to the airport!!

I wonder if you could either let me have your contact at Harvard to discuss the matter with, and confirm whether you would be willing to attend this performance.

MCH/91-45-1-5

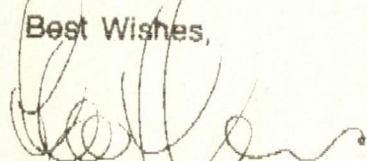

Secondly, we are visiting several theatres and arts centres which are based on University campuses or are associated with local Universities. Several have enquired whether you are planning a lecture tour in the Autumn or the near future. This is obviously a separate matter to the production, and for which separate fees are available. Should you be available, I would be willing to assist in the planning of these. Do let me know and I can proceed.

Finally, we have recently been invited to perform at The Market Theatre in Johannesburg. The Market are very willing to offer us all our 'in country expenses'. I am currently trying to raise funding from the international costs (e.g. flights etc) Current estimates are in the region of £6,000 sterling. Are you aware of any sources that might be interested within South Africa? Sorry to ask you these questions, but I am getting a bit stuck thinking of sources at this end as The British Council do not fund any work visiting South Africa. They do not have a policy! Should you wish to discuss the matter further, and obviously we would have to have your agreement, do please contact Michael Maxwell, the General Manager of the Market.

If you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

We look forward to meeting you in September.

Best Wishes,

STEVE MANNIX - Admin Director

Dear Albie,

Re: Soft Vengeance

Just wanted to send this quick fax to thank you for your comments on the script last week. It was great to have such a detailed response. They have all started rehearsals yesterday and so I am sure you will hear something in the next couple of days from the Artistic side!!

Secondly, I wanted to check your dates in London. As Joy and I understand it at the moment you are going to be with us from 13th - 16th September inclusive. I wonder if you could confirm this asap, as on the 16th in the evening we are planning a Gala Fundraising evening, if you wouldn't mind coming. Do let me know if you would like to invite any particular people to come along. The invite list is pretty comprehensive at the moment, but it can take more!!

Finally, we are still getting lots of enquiries from Universities asking us if you are available to do lecture talks. Obviously, this is a separate thing, which, as far as I can gather they have money for! Do let me know dates and any further details.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Best Wishes,

Dear Mr. Mannix,

I have your fax message of July 30th. The conference that Albie Sachs is to participate in at Harvard Law School is a brief one, taking place entirely on September 18th and 19th. It has only three sessions: Saturday morning and afternoon, and Sunday morning. All three are vital to the purposes of our discussion.

I am afraid that it would be impossible for a participant to arrive after the discussions began -- in the case of Albie Sachs, presumably well after, and possibly after both Saturday sessions, given flight schedules -- and be able to benefit from and make a contribution to them. It would be necessary to arrive at latest early enough on Friday to adjust to the change in time zone and be in shape for the start of the conference about 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

I applaud the events that lead to your request, but I see no escape from a choice about which event to attend. In any event, I will send a copy of this fax to Albie Sachs.

Congratulations on your venture. I am sure that it will be a success.

Sincerely,

Henry J. Steiner

Dear Albie

Since I've heard nothing further from you I'm assuming that we're a bit short on the specifics of people, places, situations that I could usefully get involved with on an initial short visit.

I'm sure you know my commitment to coming was serious but I don't want a holiday in S.A. and I can't travel out at the end of September. I have work in London.

Let's talk when you get over here. I want to see you and if I'm not on the London number, please call 0304 363259.

Be well....lots of love.....

Dear Albie,

I mentioned several faxes ago whether you would like to write a short 200 word intro for our programme.

If you would like to write this then do let me have this in the next couple of days at the very latest.....sorry but printers deadline!

This could mention or update the situation now, how you feel about having the book produced...anything you like really!!

See you in a couple of weeks

Best Wishes,

COMMENTS: Michael R is in SA at the moment and will not be back before you leave London. You should try to see him there and discuss at least the tax arrangements for your flat in London. Have been in touch with Joy and look forward to seeing you next week, hopefully supper at 4 Ashworth on the Monday evening.

I spoke to Ray yesterday who had just returned from hospital. I hope you could get me the number of the matron or head of the Home as I was not able to contact you or her for nearly a week.
