For urgent attention: Mr Murphy Marobe

Dear Mr Marobe

LEGAL DEPOSIT OF PUBLICATIONS ACT, 1982

Library of Parliament would like to draw your attention to the terms of the above-mentioned Act which stipulates that one copy of every publication published in the Republic of South Africa be supplied free of charge by the publisher thereof to each of the five legal deposit libraries.

We realise that CODESA as a body might not have published any publications to date, but we would nevertheless like to make an urgent appeal to you for supplying copies of any significant publications regarding the new dispensation in South Africa that might be in your possession, as well as those to be published in future, to the above-mentioned legal deposit libraries.

Library of Parliament, especially, not only has an interest in publications of a political nature but also has an obligation to build a comprehensive collection of South African political publications. Publications that are of special interest might include copies of agendas, speeches, statements, pamphlets, etc.

I include a copy of the above-mentioned Act, as well as an explanatory memorandum on the Act for your perusal. The addresses of the five legal deposit libraries are also included.

It would be appreciated if this matter could receive your serious attention. You are most welcome to contact me should you experience any problems regarding this request.
