INFORMATION FOR DELEGATES

1. Accommodation at all three hotels (Johannesburger, Down Town Inn and Rand International) will include shared accommodation and breakfast. All telephone calls, extra food or drink and laundry must be paid for by delegates.

2. Except on Thursday 28 when buses leave hotels at 9.30am, buses will leave hotels at 8.00am sharp to allow us to start at 8.30.

3. Lunch and supper will be provided at NASREC in restaurant to the right of conference hall, marked on the attached map.

4. There will be 11 commissions, as indicated in the programme. Some will sit as single commissions while others will be split up to facilitate discussion, as in the case of International Relations and Youth. Regions as well as other delegations are requested to ensure that an even number of delegates are sent to each commission. A special commission on Negotiations has been set up. Only those delegates especially included to participate in this commission should do so.

5. A note to rapporteurs and commission chairs - please contact Lindsay at office 14, marked on the map in relation to commission reports, typing etc.

6. We appeal to all delegates to refrain from commenting to the press as this will be coordinated by DIP at press briefings and conferences.

7. If you have any problems, please contact the following people:

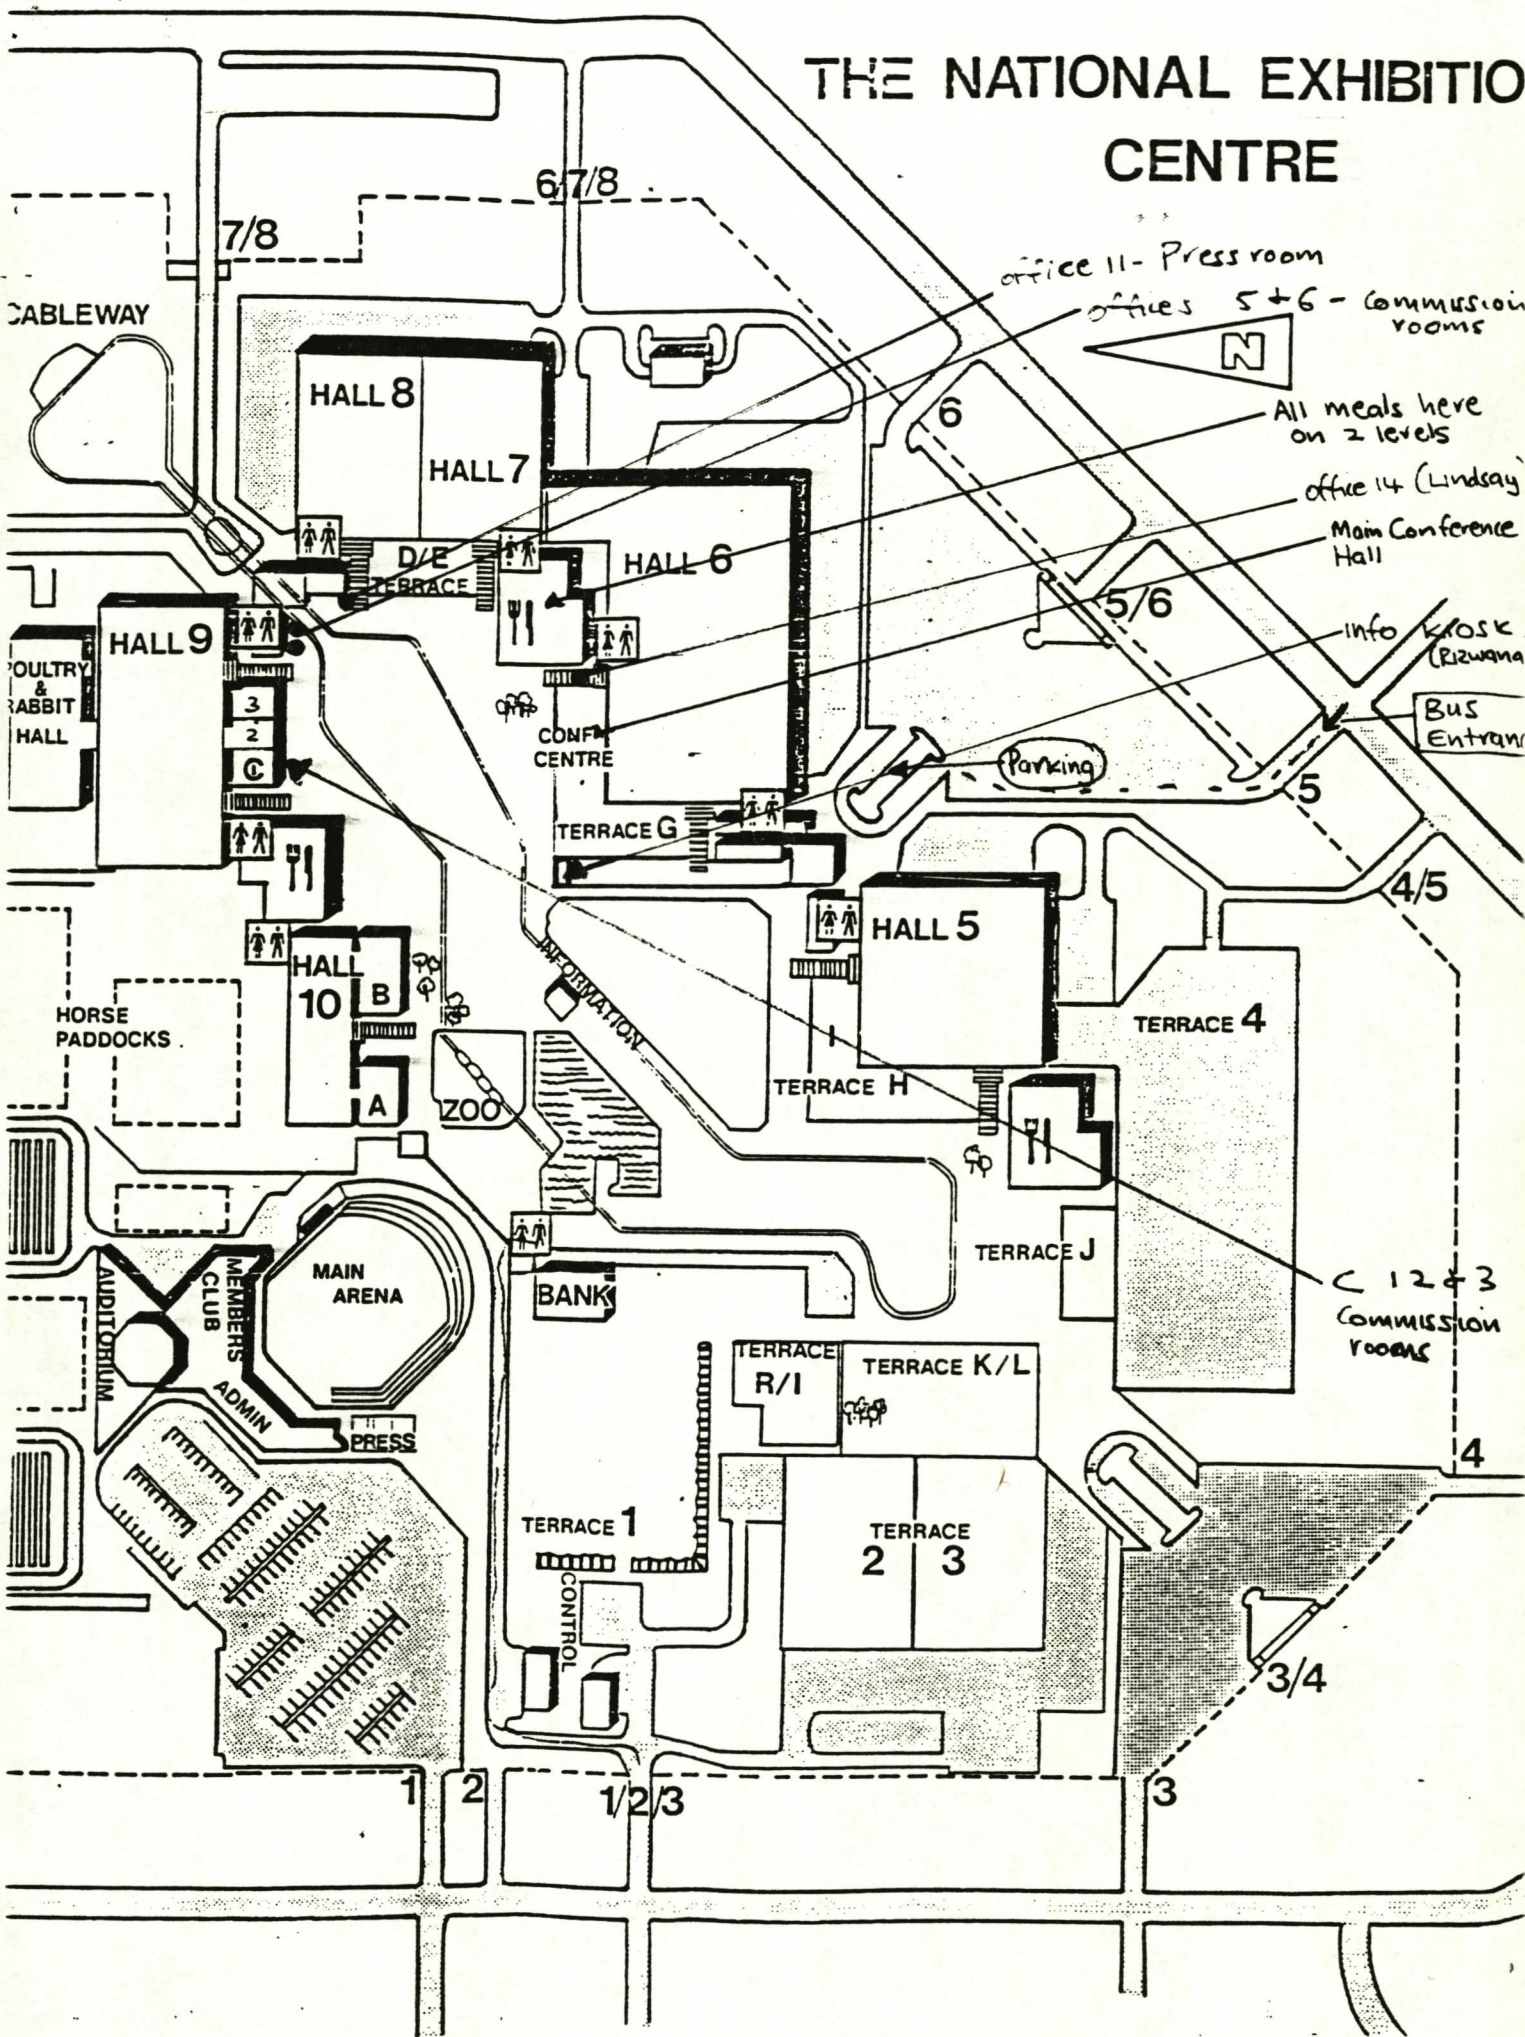

Administration, registration etc - Rizwana at the information kiosk, marked on the map.

Issues related to commissions and programme - Ketso

Issues related to security - Gary c/o Rizwana.

8. A meeting of delegation heads will take place at 6.00 on Thursday in conference hall, section 1. Use this opportunity to raise any problems through your delegation leader.
