I am writing to you in your capacity as Chairperson of the Steering Committee of the Convention for a Democratic South Africa on behalf of the All-Party Parliamentary Committee on Southern Africa. We would like to draw your attention to the attached motion which has been tabled for debate in the House of Commons and has the support of 204 Members of Parliament, including prominent members of the Conservative, Labour and Liberal Democratic Parties.

This Motion, which was initiated by our All-Party Committee, welcomes the convening of the Convention for a Democratic South Africa and expresses the hope that it will lead to rapid agreement on the establishment of an interim government to rule South Africe during the period of transition.

We look forward to the Convention preparing the basis for a new democratic and non-recial constitutional order based on one person, one vote in South Africa and send our best wishes for a successful outcome to its

We would ask that you convey these wishes to all the participants in the Convention and that you draw their attention to our Motion and the support it commands in the House of Commons in the United Kingdom,

Yours sincerely

und barn.
