Dear Sir: - Re: Power sharing between whites and non-whites in S.A.

A SUGGESTION.

1. One man one vote.
2. One House of Parliament with 500 members of whom:-
  - 250 members are white, elected by whites.
  - 60 members are Coloureds, elected by Coloureds
  - 20 members are Indians, elected by Indians.
  - 170 members are Blacks, elected by Blacks.500 Total.
- 3(i) Natal gets 50 Black Members.
- (ii) Transvaal gets 40 Black Members plus 20 Black members for the Homelands, total 60 Black members.
- (iii) The Cape gets 15 Black members plus 25 for the Independant Homelands, total 40 Black Members.
- (iv) The Orange Free State gets 15 Black members, plus 5 Black members for the Homelands, total 20 Black Members.

4. A Law is passed only with an 80% majority "Yes" vote in the House of Parliament.

5. Parliament chooses a President with 80% in favour.

6. Parliament chooses a Prime Minister with 80% majority in favour.

7. The Prime Minister chooses his 20 member cabinet.

8. General elections to be held every 7 years.

9. I wish you the wisdom of King Solomon and the patience of Job; to do what is best for our country and all its peoples.

Yours faithfully

- C. T. B. Swartz
