

PROPOSALS of the INYANDZA NATIONAL MOVEMENT concerning the key issues to be addressed in the Second Assignment

- 1 Key issues concerning the process of establishing the constitution-making body
 - 1.1 the holding of a referendum
 - if so - for whom ?
 - what should be the issues submitted to a referendum ?
 - the impact of a referendum upon the TBVC states
 - 1.2 the establishment of an Electoral Commission
 - 1.3 the statutory requirements to establish a constitution-making body
 - 1.4 the electoral requirements
 - 1.5 continuity of administration of self-governing territories, provinces and the TBVC states

- 2 Key issues concerning the structure and functioning of the constitution-making body
 - 2.1 the legal status of the constitution-making body
 - 2.2 the size and structure of the constitution-making body

- 2.3 regional representation within the constitution-making body
- 2.4 the application of the principle of proportional representation as regards the constitution-making body
- 2.5 the role of advisers in the constitution-making body
- 2.6 the powers and authority to be exercised by the constitution-making body
- 2.7 the majority required of the constitution-making body for reaching its decisions
- 2.8 the setting of a time limit for the completion of a new constitution by the constitution-making body
- 2.9 ensuring compliance by the constitution-making body with the statute which established it and with the binding decisions of CODESA.